

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Oxal: Greetings in the Light, my friends, I am Oxal.

First I would like to greet one of my old friends who is among you tonight. It has been quite some time, in your time, since you have been present at one of our contacts. It is good to see you here, although we have not been unaware of your whereabouts or your activities. We are happy to note that you are carrying on in the Father's work and doing your bit as you see it to be done. We have guided and influenced you at times in your path and I'm quite sure that there have been times when you were aware of these influences.

We have listened to your conversation here tonight. We have been attuned to your gathering from the beginning and we found your discussion quite interesting and by and large we do agree with your thinking.

There has been for sometime a withholding of events upon your planet. Many of the events of great magnitude which should have occurred quite some time back have been withheld, giving your people more time to find themselves, more time to come into the realization of the choice that must be made by them. But, my friends, this time has run out. The cosmic clock is moving forward now and has been for some time, so you can expect as we have stated before, to see great events occurring all about you—in your earth, on your Earth and above or around your Earth.

As you have felt, there is now again a great outpouring of Light, of spiritual energies in one last great effort to awaken your sleeping humanity. To bring them up out of the grave which they have been in, to bring them into reality, to awaken them to the great opportunity that is at hand. No longer can we stay these things. The time is now. The time to stand forth. To come out from among the multitudes. To stand out and declare yourself. To know your purpose and to pursue it with all the strength of your being.

If God is with you who can be against you? Why, O People of Earth, do you fear to stand out and declare your allegiance? Why do you hide your Light? This is not the time for weakness, this is the time for courage, the time to show your strength, to carry His banner forward. Bear it high and proudly. Yes, now is the time and time is marching forward rapidly. The climax is approaching.

We, of the Otavana, and those in other craft from other areas of space, those upon other planets that have learned these lessons, and those in the higher realms of life are standing by to give you their assistance in every way possible, when you have done your part. Then you have come forth with the proper attitude and proper purpose in mind. They have made pledges to you in the past and they shall be kept.

So, my friends, bear this message to those to whom you feel guided to do so and fear not for you shall be guided and directed in the right paths. The opportunities to serve in His name will come to you if you are willing to accept them. To those who are willing to serve there is fruitful ground in which to work. You will lack not for opportunities. Accept your challenges and carry them out to the best of your ability and He shall say to you one day, "Well done, my good and faithful servant, you have earned your rewards."

I leave you, my friends, by extending to you the love, the light and the understanding of my people.

I am Oxal. ✿
