Oxal: Greetings in the light my friends, I am Oxal.

It has been a long time since I have spoken with you. I extend to each of you my special love and greetings. We, of the Otavana, are still in your skies, still attempting to carry out our mission for your system and your planet.

Much has transpired upon your planet since I last spoke with you. Many of the events of which we spoke have come to pass and many yet are still to come. We are grieved that your people have not responded as well as we would have liked, but too, we are grateful that many have made the choice. Many have turned to the service of their fellow man.

A great revolution is taking place today upon your planet and we are watching this with great interest. Out of this revolution will come the leaders of the new Age. Much criticism has been made of these people, their ideals, of their doings. But out of this shall grow a new order. Out of chaos shall come order. This is the process by which your civilization has grown.

The karmic debt of your civilization is being reaped. There is yet much more to be paid. As this karma is worked out and the age through which you have just passed comes to a close, a new order will rise, an order that is new, that is good, where man shall live for his brother, where man shall not think in terms of himself, but shall think in terms of all. A new man will arise, a greater man. A man such as you have never known.

There is much, my friends, that you have not been told, that has not been taught in your religions, nor even in your occult teachings, for if it were to have been given to you, you have not the minds to comprehend. The brain capacity of your present civilization is not such that it could comprehend. But in the new Age, man will have a greater brain capacity, a greater capacity to comprehend. Therefore he shall be given greater knowledge by which he can live. And man shall thrive. Science will thrive and man of Earth will proceed into a new way of life such as you could not comprehend at this time. This is what is referred to in your holy writings as the millennium, but even then after many years, there will be those who will attempt to use this knowledge and these powers for their selfish gain. This is what is meant when it was written that Lucifer again will be loosed. But, my friends, this will only be for a short time for there will be too many with wisdom to allow these few to gain a foothold great enough to destroy another civilization. Too many times this has happened in your civilizations and this time it shall not repeat itself, for man, by and large, will have too great a wisdom, will be too wise to allow this to happen. For he will have within him the power to look back and see the mistakes that have been made in previous civilizations.

My friends, this time is approaching much faster than you think or realize, much faster, my friends. The time is upon you. Prepare yourselves for ye know not at what hour he cometh. To use your references, "Have your lamps filled and your wicks trimmed so that you shall not have to go for oil when the Bridegroom cometh, but will be ready to enter in with him." "I speak not empty words. Too long your people have ignored the warnings. Too long have they tarried by the wayside. The time is now, the Kingdom is at hand. Prepare yourself for that day.

We, of the Otavana, are in your skies. We are attempting in every way to help all of those who have, to the best of their ability, tried to prepare themselves for these times. We are grateful for the opportunity to extend this service. Our only regret is that we cannot do more, but we cannot force ourselves upon anyone. Man was created with a free choice and must choose freely and willingly and sincerely. There is no half way in the sight of your creator. You must go all the way. There is no other way.

I leave you by extending to you the light, the love and the understanding of my people.

I am Oxal. ✿
