Teacher: Greetings.

I have been with you all through this sojourn, this lifetime, attempting to help you when I could, I tried to keep you from going too far to the right or to the left. I tried to keep you in the center. At times it was difficult.

I am very pleased with your progress now on the spiritual path. You have made exceptional progress in the last five years spiritually. Perhaps you don't realize that in this period you have made your greatest step forward soul wise, I am very happy about this. Of course there is still a lot of learning, progress, to be made. It takes time to reach the top of the ladder, we do this one step at a time.

I attempt to guide you into the proper areas of learning, bringing you into contact with certain types of learning and people. I have also had some influence on many of your dreams. I don't specialize in giving out advice, only suggestions.

Your main objective now in searching should be in preparing for the coming times. These times have never occurred in this civilization for generations. Those who will really reap the benefit from these difficult times, will be the ones who have prepared themselves, both physically and spiritually. These times will require strength in all areas and to be in His service in these times will require strength in these areas. I suggest to you and others to try diligently to develop this strength for your own benefit and to prepare you to help others through these times.

My interest in you is much greater than you realize, strictly from the spiritual approach, of course. The only difference between us is that I have reached a little higher rung on the ladder and now I am reaching back to help. I hope that you will soon be standing on the same rung.

It is going to take much courage, much strength in the days ahead. I will be always at your side to add my strength to yours through the difficult times, as I have in the past.

If you find favor in God's law it is necessary to always lend a helping hand, to serve wherever possible. These things you will realize more and more as you raise yourself to greater heights in His service.

I am happy with your progress. Continue as you are. Search within for all the true answers will be found there. Within you lie the secrets of His universe, the secrets of man. Those who search there for Him, there they will find Him.

I must go now, I bless you. My blessings are ever with you. I will be always with you in your hours of need and trials, giving you the courage and strength to carry on.

May the peace and the grace of the Great Ones be ever with you.

My love I leave with you. ☸
