Zalhem: Greetings to you my children I am Zalhem.

I will speak to you for a few moments about a subject that is much talked about today in some of your religious circles. Much is said about the Holy Spirit and the Holy Breath these days. I will not attempt to explain God to you, for God is infinite and finite mind cannot possibly comprehend the infinite.

You are aware, of course, that there are the three aspects known in your religions as the Triune God, the Father, symbolized by fire, air and water; God the Son, symbolized as Love; God the Mother, symbolized by wisdom, knowledge.

We will concern ourselves at this time with only the latter aspect, named by some of your religions as the Holy Spirit and others as the Holy Breath. We prefer the terminology, Holy Breath. For when She comes to you She actually breathes Her wisdom and knowledge into your being. Your Great Master, in preparing His disciples for His departure, stated that He must go away, that another, a Comforter might come, this Comforter being the Holy Breath. Now why was it necessary for Him to go away that this Comforter might come? Were He to have stayed with His disciples their attention would have been so focused on Him, their dependency so great upon Him, that they would not have been able to receive the full impact of the Holy Breath that they did receive after His departure.

I am sure that all of you know the story of Pentecost. I need not go into that. But we shall rather concern ourselves with you at the present. The Holy Breath is also available to you today as it was to them in their day. Nothing has changed. God's Laws are firm. They are everlasting, they do not change.

The Holy Breath is a comforter, is a protector. Wisdom and knowledge can be one's greatest comfort and greatest protection. It was promised that She would intervene in your hours of need, She would put words of wisdom in your mouth when they are needed, She would give you the right words to say at any time you need them. You need not be concerned when you are persecuted or brought up before the courts to defend your actions. She will give you the right words at the right time and you will know what to say and what not to say.

She is the only source, true source, of knowledge. She will teach you all things, for She knows all things. You may read many books. This is good, you will earn much in this way. You will listen to many teachers and you will learn much in this way. But you will not know. You only have what someone else has said, you have heard their views. But you do not know, it is only through your contact with the Holy Breath that you will know.

Through Her, master minds are created. And only a master mind knows. He knows because he has learned from the Master Mind, from the great Mind that knows all things, the past, the present and future. Only a Master Mind can travel back in the corridors of time and know what is true. Many claim to know but they are only stating what they have been told. If you would become a Master Mind then seek to become one with the Master Mind.

Purify yourself, dedicate yourself to the service of your Lord and your fellow man, seek to become one with your Creator. Develop this Christ Love, pray that it will enter your heart and become a part of you. Pray that the Holy Breath will breath forth wisdom and knowledge into your mind. For the power of God is a dangerous thing without the love, wisdom and knowledge to go with it. Pray that you do not gain this power before you have gained the love and the wisdom and the knowledge that is necessary to use it and use it properly for the good of all concerned.

The farther you go upon the spiritual path, the greater will become your responsibilities and temptations. So pray that you stay strong, strong of heart, pure of mind. For this is very important on the spiritual ladder. You will find many trying times ahead when you will need this strength, when you will need this love and this wisdom and this knowledge.

Pray that you have it. Work diligently to develop it. I have said enough.

May the peace, love and the blessings of all the Great Ones be invoked upon each of you now.

Go in peace, my friends, go in peace, peace. ☸
