Clyde: A radiant Being, dressed in a purple robe with a gold sash, appeared.

Our individual Teachers (Wisdors) said, "All hail" to him.

He then went to each one, and each drank from the goblet which he offered to them.

The goblet was engraved with the words "Brotherly Love."

After each had drunk, he touched them with his two forefingers on the forehead, the third eye.

Then he said, "May the quaff from the cup enhance your ability to love one another as we love you." ☸
