

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Copyright © 2012 Clyde Trepanier

November 9, 1961

Yaum: Good evening to you, my friends, I am Yaum.

It has been sometime since I have visited you.

Questioner: We have missed you.

Yaum: I have also missed you, and it gives me great pleasure to once more come among you and be as one of you.

Man, today, is seeking to know the secrets of the universe, and to learn of its powers, its energies. He is putting forth great efforts to try to learn these things. Yet, so very, very little effort is put forth by man to learn something about himself. Is this not true, my friends? Man knows, on planet Earth, so very, very little about himself, and yet he spends great amounts of energy, time and money, trying to learn the secrets of the universe, to discover new scientific methods, etc. If Earth man could come into a realization of the importance of discovering himself, and spend half of the effort in discovering himself, he should advance at tremendous speeds in his scientific knowledge. For when man has discovered himself, he has really discovered the secrets of the universe, for man is all things. But, until man begins to know himself, he shall find his progress in science quite difficult. What I am trying to say to you is, that once man has learned about himself, has discovered the power that lies within him, who and what he is, then these things become quite simple. For he can learn that he has the power to tap the universal mind, so to speak, and gain knowledge so very, very easily, for it is all there. Nothing that you shall discover or develop in thousands of years from now, nothing, not one thing shall you find or discover that is not already there. It is there, you only need to reach out with your own mind to be able to attune your consciousness to the universal consciousness that is always there, and conceive everything that ever has been, or ever will be, for there can be nothing new.

But, man has learned so very, very, very little about his pure being, his pure being, For man in his pure being can, at all times, attune himself to the one and only consciousness, for he is a part of this consciousness. Each individual consciousness is as a cell in a great consciousness, as one minute cell in your physical structure is a part of the whole. And so, my friends, you are equally a part of this great universal consciousness.

Now, you say, my friends, "How do I do this, how do I discover myself?" Well, this is a good question, very good. First, man has to begin to expand his consciousness, he has to at least consider some of these things and come into some realization of what he is. The difficulty with man of Earth is, that he does not want to admit his greatness. He wants to suppress himself, so to speak. He wants to say, "I am just a little fellow. I have no power. I cannot do this, I cannot do that, because of certain circumstances that surround me. This person or that person holds me back." But, my friends, realize what you are, admit to yourself what you are.

For if you do not admit it, surely no one else is going to recognize it. For you can be what you can conceive of being. So, start to realize that you are a part of the whole of creation and that your place in creation is just as important as the highest being you can conceive of. The only difference between you and a being of higher understanding is, that you have not come into the realization of your true self, for all men were created equal, and each man is entitled to his place, but, he must claim it. If he is not willing to claim it, then he will never reach this state. But, sooner or later, all men must come into this realization and again return to his rightful place and again climb back to the point of pure being,

Man, upon your planet must begin to realize these things. But know that you are not going to reach this state of pure being in a moment. For, from where Earth man stands today, it is going to take time to weed out of his consciousness the misbeliefs and the untruths that he has stored there. He must weed out all of the limitations. Man has placed so many, many limitations upon himself, that he has really made his road very rough and difficult.

So I say to you, my friends, start to weed out these limitations from your consciousness, refuse to have anything to do with them. This will take a bit of working, for the things that have been so deeply imbedded there over a long period of—perhaps I could say several lifetimes—will not leave easily or willingly. You are going to have to work on this a little bit. But, I am sure that once you have decided that you are going to weed these things out of your consciousness and cast them aside, never more to allow them to enter, you are going to find a new world opening up before you. And you shall find that you have power and great abilities within you that you never dreamed existed. And you shall be greatly surprised to find out what you really are.

My friends, it has been my very great pleasure to spend these few moments with you tonight. I sincerely hope that you have enjoyed it as much as I. If I have been of some slight service to you, I am very, very grateful. I want to thank all of you for accepting me in your midst tonight, and I ask that my love and blessings shall follow you in your search for truth. And I should also like to tell you that each of you here been greatly blessed tonight, as well as myself, For, among you tonight, perhaps you were not aware, stood a very, very great being, whom I have great reverence for, and always feel very humble in his presence. This being has stood among you to night and to each of you he has given a very, very special blessing. I thought that perhaps you should like to know.

And now, my friends, I must vacate this instrument.

Peace be with you, my friends. Peace. ☸