Teacher: Greetings to you my beloved ones, peace be with you:

My beloved, in the days that are shortly to come to pass, strong souls will be needed. Keep strong in your faith, complement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with Godliness, and Godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love and wisdom, that you may be able to follow in the footsteps of your Lord and your Savior, Jesus the Christ.

Each of you here this night are here because you are seeking. Each is attempting in his own way to climb the ladder of spiritual understanding, to stand in greater light and each is walking in as much light as he or she has.

Now, my beloved friends, you are attempting to meet, to come together as one, to join for a short time together in consciousness and attempt to bring yourself to a little greater understanding and by so doing helping the ones with whom you are gathering to do the same. Now if you would accomplish what you desire in these meetings, it will be necessary for you to establish oneness, to attempt to draw yourselves into a consciousness of aoneness. You can help a great deal in doing this by realizing the oneness of all creation, for all creation, from the lowest creeping thing to the highest consciousness that exists, is by Divine Nature, held together by thin etheric thread-like connections. Anything that takes place in this aoneness affects all creation. So as you sit in your circle visualize being held in this aoneness, realizing that you are all children of the Most High. Each is drawing his life energy from that Universal supply which is never ending, which is fed to all life through these invisible etheric threads. Without them all life would cease to be.

This will aid much in bringing harmony, love, understanding to those concerned. Realize as you work together that each is growing and developing in his or her own way and time. So it is necessary that you have great tolerance, great love and great understanding for each other and as you grow, this love and understanding shall extend to include all creation for all is one and one is all.

As you grow in understanding, in knowledge and in wisdom, you will come into a thorough understanding of this great aoneness throughout all life and you will realize your part in it and your soul will grow strong and you shall, through your very living, bring light to those about you for there is no greater teacher than the teacher of example. No Master asks his pupil to do that which he does not; he teaches by example.

My beloved friends, in the events that will come to pass in the very near future you will find this strength very beneficial in that you will be able to give great help to many. For it will take strong souls to guide some of those who shall be reaching out in these days. And perhaps many of these will be your own loved ones, for many of the events that will come to pass will awaken some to the realization of their past failures and they shall want to be redeemed and some will be. Therefore those who are strong, who have understanding and knowledge and wisdom, will be able to render this service.

So, My beloved friends, do you want to be one of these who are able to give this service or do you want to be one who will have to receive it? The choice is yours. It can only be made by you. If you make the choice to follow in His footsteps many hands will be reached out to you to aid, comfort and help you. But you must put forth the effort for nothing is gained without work, without great effort and great sacrifice. I leave you, my friends, to make the choice. It is up to you.

May the love, the peace, the blessings of the Great Silent Brotherhood be invoked upon each of you now and may each of you receive as much Light as you can bear.

Go in peace, my friends, peace, peace. ☸
