Odina, beloved ones, Odina. I am Hatton. ☸

Hatton: I greet you, my beloved friends, in the Love and Light of the Infinite Creator. I am Hatton.

Days, my friends, are rapidly drawing near when each of you who is going to work for your humanity must take your place and stand out for all to see. In other words, the workers must take their stand, must stand firm upon what they know to be Truth.

Opportunities are increasing, as you are aware of, opportunities to serve, opportunities to become better acquainted with other workers from other points. The importance of your work will depend a great deal upon your response to these opportunities. You see, this plan is far-reaching. It covers our entire planet. And in order for this plan to work as it should, it is necessary that certain individuals be brought together, to know one another. For when the time comes, when your service shall entwine with that of others, you will have knowledge of them, will know of this work.

Many things that are taking place these days are taking place for a purpose, and this shall be very apparent to you in the future. You are finding yourselves urged inwardly to do certain things, to go certain places. You find yourself being drawn toward certain new acquaintances. Be aware of these urges and follow them. Do not ignore them, for this is also a testing period. The importance of your work shall depend a great deal upon your response. Yes, beloved friends, these are the days when those of Light shall be gathered together in preparation for their days of great service. You can be as important in this plan as you care to make yourself. Be not afraid to entertain strangers, for you may be amazed in the days to come when you discover who some of these are.

All of you here have been greatly blessed this night, for Great Beings have stood among you and have poured out their Love and Understanding to you. May you have received this Light through your open heart, through your own Love, extending forth to give and to receive. I would add my Love and my Blessings to this, for each of you is near and dear to me.

May the Love and Understanding of the Infinite One grow ever stronger in your hearts and in your souls.
