Yaum: Greetings to you, my beloved. I am Yaum.

It is my pleasure to again be in your presence. It has been a long time, has it not?

Questioner: Yes, it certainly has. We have missed you.

Yaum: Well, I have been very busy, and as Anthon has explained to you before, there are a lot of changes taking place in the Brotherhood at this time, and this is affecting me, also. I am very sorry that I was not aware of the preparations that you were making to come and see me; but I must explain to you that during these transition periods, we are often very busy and are not in as close a contact with each other as we normally are. This is one of the reasons that I have been unable to come and speak with you for some time. I know that the Circle R teachers have not been aware of the change that has been taking place with me, because they cannot always keep track of everything that is going on with everyone. It is much like it would be for you to try to keep track of everything that goes on with everyone in the city of Seattle, for instance. This Universe is a large place, you know. Even planet Earth, with its populations in both the objective and subjective planes, has a large number of egos, and to know what is going on with everyone at all times is impossible.

I understand that you and some of the others have been making preparations to come to China. I am sorry that I was not aware of that or I would have contacted you sooner, as it would have saved you some time and effort; but, be that as it may, I must tell you that I will not be able to be your host in China at this time because I will only be there for about thirty more days. I have had what you would probably refer to here on Earth, as a promotion, but it is really a transfer to another type of work, and this will necessitate my leaving the objective plane to go into the subjective plane to work. Also, I have used this physical body for a good, long time, much longer than is usually the case; and after a certain period of time, it requires much more effort to keep this physical body in good condition due to its exposure to the environment and the various stresses and strains that are put upon it. It's not that I could not use it longer, but I will be somewhat glad to lay it down, and I will be doing that very shortly. I will be going into a Brotherhood retreat within the next thirty days or so, and there I will take off this body and lay it to rest. Then, I will proceed into the subjective plane where I will take up my new work.

Questioner: Thank you for sharing that with us.

Yaum: If you could have come sooner, I would have been glad to entertain you; but it has been over a year since I extended my invitation, and changes do take place, you know. I am sorry that we will not be able to get together.

Questioner: We are, too. We were looking forward with great joy to doing that, and to being able to see you in the physical after all these years.

Yaum: Well, changes are inevitable, you know, and we must move with them. My new work is going to be very interesting. I will be what you here on Earth would call a lawyer, but we will be dealing with Universal Law—seeing that the laws are enforced and that those who violate the law must pay the penalty, and those who obey the law will reap the benefits. This is what the group that I'll be working with does. Eventually, this, too, will come to an end and we will move on to something else. If we are to become all-knowledgeable, as we are striving to be, then we must become knowledgeable, as we are striving to be, then we must become knowledgeable in all fields. Therefore, it is necessary for us to serve in all of these different fields through time in order to become a fully-rounded soul.

Questioner: Will we ever get to visit with you again?

Yaum: I will still be able to come and talk to you. This will not change. I can come from the subjective plane as well as the physical plane. I will still be, you know.

Questioner: Will you still be an Oriental?

Yaum: Well, upon the subjective plane, you can be whatever you want to be.

Questioner: Well, isn't there one certain thing that one should be, though?

Yaum: Not necessarily, so far as race or color or something of that type is concerned. If you wish to remain the same as you were on the objective plane, this is your privilege, or you may change to a different expression, if you wish.

Questioner: What should one truly be when he is serving on the subjective plane?

Yaum: Universal. There is no race, no color. You just are.

Questioner: Does one have to achieve a certain level of evolvement to have this Universal Consciousness?

Yaum: Yes, it depends upon your state of evolvement. If you are at the state where you think that you are a black man, then you are a black man. That is how you see yourself upon the subjective plane, you see; but then, when you incarnate, it may be as something else. You may have a desire to incarnate as an Oriental or some other color. This may also be determined by your karma, so there are many things that enter into that.

Questioner: Well, we do bless you and wish you great joy and achievement in your new work. We know that you will be successful, and our love goes with you.

Yaum: I thank you for that, and your Circle R will always be in my heart. I will still come occasionally and talk with you. I am deeply sorry that I must disappoint you concerning your plans to visit me, but this is beyond my control.

Questioner: We understand. We were just looking forward to the privilege and the blessing of being in your presence on the physical plane. Your visits to us here have been a great inspiration over the years.

Yaum: Well, I thank you for your interest, and I am sorry that it had to turn out this way, but it really would have been a great effort for you to make such a journey. There is a lot of what you would call "red tape" involved, and you cannot always be sure that you will be able to meet all of the requirements, although I think that you would have been able to get through that.

Questioner: When can we look forward to meeting you then? Will it be on the astral plane?

Yaum: We will all see each other in the not too distant future. Time passes quickly, you know, and soon we will be together again on the subjective plane, and then, we can rejoice together. I think I have pretty well covered the situation now. Do you have any more questions?

Questioner: No, I think not. We thank you again for coming and for giving us the joy of anticipating our visit to China, even though it didn't work out.

Yaum: I am sorry it didn't work out, but so be it. It has been my pleasure, over the years, to spend the time with you that I have. I have enjoyed our conversations, and I hope that I have been of some help to you. If I have, I am humbled and grateful, and I will be talking with you again in the near future.

Questioner: That is wonderful. We will be looking forward to that. You have been a great blessing to many people.

Yaum: It has been my privilege and my joy to have been able to do this. Now, as I leave, I extend to you and to all of the Center R group, my love, my peace, my joy and my blessings, and I invoke the blessings of all the Great Ones upon each of you. As you go forward in your search for truth, may you find that peace and joy within you. Seek there for it, for that is the only place that you will find it.

Peace, beloved ones, peace, peace. Go in peace. ☸
