

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Copyright © 2012 Clyde Trepanier

April 3, 1961

Oxal: Greetings in the light, my friends, I am Oxal.

As we observe from our vantage point the maneuvering of your world leaders for power and advantage in the name of peace, it rather amazes us how very little knowledge these great intellectual minds have of universal law. If they had a small fraction of universal law as they have of ways and means of destroying each other, if they could realize the penalty that they shall reap for their actions, they should tremble in fear and shrink from the very thoughts that are now within their hearts. Man cannot carry on in this manner without reaping the results. Yet each day finds new ideas, new efforts being put forth to find new ways of bringing about destruction of those whom they consider to be their enemies.

When will Earth man come into the realization that his only salvation of survival lies in his ability to live and work in harmony with his fellow man? When will he learn that man in reality possesses nothing, that in doing as he has, he is merely building on a foundation of sand which shall be washed away, shall be washed from beneath him when the rains come. He shall flounder and sink.

Why has Earth man had such great difficulty in coming into this realization? He has built his desires, his hopes completely around self, ignoring the fact that man does not live alone, that mankind is tied together by bonds much greater than physical desires as you know them. One of your great teachers explained this when he said: to build upon the rock and to build your treasures spiritually, rather than physically, for where your treasures are, there shall your heart be and your consciousness.

My beloved friends, search your hearts and see where your treasures lie and then build according to your understanding. Rise up from among the masses and stand out as an individual, ready to be known as one who stands upon truth as he knows it and seeks forever higher and greater truths, having at all times an open heart and mind building continually upon his rock foundation until he reaches heights where through his living he demonstrates the light in which you move and have your being. Know at all times that your creator has placed within you the ability, the desire and the knowledge of how to reach the highest goal, and know also, that as each day the sun rises you have reached another step forward on the climb upward and onward to higher truth and understanding.

Somehow among Earth people there seems to exist a fear of declaring themselves, of claiming the rightful place which is theirs, of identifying themselves with their creator. Certainly no man should feel shame for this, yet, this lurks in the hearts of many of your people and needs to be called forth, to be plucked from them. For many have the desire to come forth and claim their place, yet they have not quite the courage. Beloved friends, oftentimes you can place the spark in the heart of this individual that is needed to bring him forth. Do not miss these opportunities. It is not the righteous that need your help, but it is those who need to be sparked who need to have the flame kindled within them that will start them on their path to understanding. For until a man hath understanding, though he possess all that the world can give him, he hath nothing. Where do you stand? Today, my friends, in your world of darkness, do you stand ready to serve your Master? You, beloved ones, can only answer for yourself.

Surrounding your planet today, are millions of beings from other planets, waiting, hoping, that people of Earth will awaken and ask their help. They stand ready to serve people of Earth, to help them to a new way of life that is far beyond anything that most of them could conceive of. They are waiting only to be asked. They have offered their service.

It has been refused, yet they stand back and wait, hoping that enough people of Earth will accept them before they bring too much destruction upon themselves. Universal law will not allow these beings to intercede against the will of your people. So you see, my friends, the future of the people of Earth lies in their own hands. How many shall survive the coming changes will depend upon them.

We extend our encouragement and our gratitude to those of you who are attempting to do your part. We hope that these numbers will increase greatly and we know that each of you will do your part in trying to increase these numbers by letting your light shine through your living, that others shall want to follow.

I extend to each of you the love, the light, and the understanding of my people.

I am Oxal. ✨