Nathaniel: Greetings to you my beloved ones, I am Nathaniel.

I should like to continue talking about visualization. I hope that I am not going to bore you with this, but we feel that this is such an important development that we want to be sure that you realize the importance of developing this ability.

Upon every step that you take upon the path you will find visualization and concentration becoming more and more important to you. You are mind, at this time functioning in a physical magnetic body. But without mind the body would not exist. Without the power of mind, of visualization and concentration nothing about you would exist, your planet would not exist, your solar system would not exist. All of this was brought about through the power of visualization and concentration.

Now you are attempting to grow, to be able to serve your fellow man, to gain more knowledge and wisdom, greater understanding, and we are telling you that the starting point is the mind. You often talk about the attempt to carry out the sending out of energies, or light as you call it, for the benefit of mankind, for the benefit of your planet, and its inhabitants or to help those that you would personally like to help in the way of healing or whatever it might be. So if you want to become proficient in these things, then you must develop this mind power.

Now you have seen great healers at work who have done great works, yet you say their mind power is no greater than your own, and this perhaps is true, but these individuals are usually good conductors of energy and are being used by beings in other dimensions to channel this power through, and are not accomplishing this by their own mind power. It would be much better if you could do this upon your own and accomplish things that you would like to accomplish. The greater visual power of mind and control of mind, the greater will be your ability to attract to you the things that will be most beneficial to you on your path of growing.

To visualize for things that you need, even material things that you need, is not wrong. Visualizing for anything that is beneficial to you is not wrong. Greater knowledge and wisdom can be brought to you through the power of concentration and visualization. When you visualize it coming to you, it is bound to come, for what so ever you ask from Universal Mind or, God as you call it, is bound by law to return to you. But the speed with which it is returned to you depends upon your own ability to impress this upon Universal Consciousness.

There are however, factors that can slow or cancel the results. Such as negative thinking, doubting, lack of emotional control, anger and resentment. All of these things can serve to cancel out the impression that you have made.

So you see it is necessary to do some work along with this in the way of emotional control, proper thinking and proper living. It all goes together. This is not to say that one cannot, if they concentrate enough, draw forth what so ever they desire. Here again, I must caution you that Universal Mind does not decide between positive and negative or good and evil. So if you are to demand from Universal Mind something that is not good for you, or something for selfish purposes, or something that you know is not good and you desire it for selfish personal reasons, you may still get this returned to you, but it will do you much more harm than good. So one must be cautious and use wisdom and do not demand selfishly from Universal Mind, which will give it to you, but it will not be for your good.

These are laws that cannot fail so long as you remember to use this energy for good. As I said, this does not mean that you cannot use it for self, so long as it is for your good.

This power reaches into many areas and is the greatest power that man has to develop. The more knowledgeable you become, the more power you attain. You should realize the responsibilities that go along with this power, and more, you should realize the importance of it.

Eventually, if you continue on your path, you will be called upon to do battle with opposing minds, and there you will find the real test of your power, as did Moses. Mind Power is something that has to be developed if one is to travel the path. The farther you go upon the path, the greater importance this will be to you and the greater power you will need to handle the tasks that are before you. I have said enough.

As I leave you now I extend to each of you my love and my blessings, and I ask the Great Ones to pour forth their blessings and their Love and their Peace upon each one of you.

Go in Peace, beloved, go in Peace, Peace. ☸
