Yaum: Good evening to you, my friends. It is my very great pleasure to be among all of my old friends again. Many of you I have not had the opportunity to speak with for a long time. I wish to extend my special love and greetings to all of you. It is a great pleasure to have this opportunity to be with you all again.

Questioner: It is our pleasure to have you back.

Now if I can be of any help to you I will be glad to share my understanding with you, but please remember that this is my understanding and you may do with it as you like. So we may spend a few moments discussing some impersonal questions if you choose to do so and if it is agreeable with all of you.

Questioner: Can you tell us something of what is in store for us for, say the next twenty years?

Yaum: Do you really want to know? For one thing the food supply upon planet Earth will continually diminish and as you already know there are many famine areas upon your planet today. In the not too far distant future it is going to be prevalent throughout your entire planet. We have advised in our past connections with you folks that it would be well to prepare for these coming times. Prepare in every way, not only in food but spiritually and physically for it is going to take great stamina to withstand the times that are upon you.

Your civilization has built a great karma which is now being felt. Your resources have been wasted, your food supplies have been wasted in great quantities and nature is reacting. This is a law and the karma cannot be escaped. So the conditions that you are facing today are going to continually worsen. There may be short periods of relief, perhaps, but it will be short-lived.

So you see it is very necessary to be prepared for these times. It is going to take great spiritual strength to withstand these times as you have two forces working. You have the forces of Light and the forces of darkness, two opposing forces and unless you learn to develop yourself spiritually to combat these forces you may have a very difficult time. Many of you will experience the results of these forces and by these experiences you will learn very important lessons that are necessary for you to be able to carry yourself through these times and to defend yourself against the opposing forces. For as the forces of Light grow stronger and brighter so will the forces of darkness grow stronger until the final overcoming. In the end the forces of Light will be victorious.

But nevertheless one must be able to discern for there will be great temptations. The Scriptures have warned about the Antichrists and many of them will be difficult for you to identify for they will display great powers, they will do great works. But if you continue in the Light and build yourself in the Christ Light, you will be able to identify them by their fruits. By their fruits shall ye know them. This is something for all light workers, all of those who are seeking the Light, all who are seeking to walk in His footsteps, to learn.

In your past generations, as you know by your histories, great persecutions have taken place. Those who have tried to follow the Light were persecuted, attempts were made to destroy them and many of them were destroyed in the physical. But their souls have lived on and they have continued to carry on through lifetime after lifetime. Again those who insist on walking in the Light, who insist on standing up for justice, who stand in the fire regardless of the consequences for love of their brother man, again they will face these situations and the chaff will be separated from the wheat. Are there any other subjects that you would like to discuss?

Questioner: Can you tell us generally what the consciousness of the people will accept or reject in the next six or seven years?

Yaum: There has to be a coming together of the different beliefs in consciousness. The metaphysicians and the charismatic or Pentecostals, the Catholics and all your other religions have in the past been moving too much in separate directions. There must be a coming together in consciousness. There has been in each movement too much concentration on their own way. In metaphysics for example, there has been too much ignoring of the literal, the things that are going to happen in the physical. Instead they view them from a metaphysical standpoint. Then some of the other groups view things too literally, such as the prophecies.

In reality there is a dual meaning. There are deeper meanings to be sought out through meditation and true searching but also things need to be viewed from a literal standpoint. These prophecies are coming about and are going to happen as you are beginning to see all about you. You see in the past there has been too much fanaticism such as a comet causing the world to end, the mountain will open and the people will be taken to Heaven, et cetera. Then these things did not happen. The truth is that these changes are happening gradually as you have been told they would for many years. If you have watched very closely you have noticed this, that it is beginning to make a whole picture. It is also true that some things will happen quickly, such as earthquakes and storms which will destroy property and life. These will continue to worsen over a period of time as you have seen them do. The consciousness of these people on the Path is going to go higher and there will be a coming together as they realize more and more that none of them have all of the Truth or the whole picture.

The whole truth of Truth none of us have and it will take us a long time to reach that point of Infinity. The finite mind will never be able to comprehend Infinity. That is why you find it so difficult to try to conceive the greater things that are too far out when we are functioning in the finite mind. But in due time we shall all reach that state and the consciousness of the Light seekers and workers will increase rapidly from now on, even as those of the darkness will decrease as far as their consciousness is concerned. In five to ten years you will find a great difference as many events will transpire in that time, which will cause man to either grow in spiritual understanding, in spiritual consciousness or to temporarily decrease.

Questioner: Is it not most vital to develop spiritually, to learn to communicate with our innermost source as this will be essential in the times ahead?

Yaum: Without this you will not survive these times, for it will only be your spiritual strength which will enable you to survive. But you are in this world of material or carnal existence so you also have to consider this side of it so long as you are in it. So it is necessary to keep a balance, to prepare both spiritually and materially. Accentuate the spiritual as it should have top priority but we have to regulate our priorities in the degree of importance and not ignore any of them.

Questioner: Will you comment about the belief that some have that the "Rapture" will last seven years?

Yaum: This is their interpretation of the description in the Scriptures.

Questioner: Will there be a seven year period, of travail?

Yaum: Yes, this is true. There will be seven years of really terrible times, where man will not want to exist, nor want to live, but he will live. It is true that those who do not need to experience this, will be taken, will be relieved of this. But this does not mean that they will not have some very difficult times before that when conditions will be such that man will be tried in very, very severe ways. He will have to prove his worth through trials. These times will be after many other things of great importance have come about prior to this, that the Light workers will go through to prove their worth.

Questioner: How will those in the Charismatic movement adjust to the long waiting period, around 25 years, before the return of Jesus, since they now believe that His return is imminent?

Yaum: I think that most of them will accept the waiting period. There are probably people in this movement too, who will not survive, who will not stand in the fire. In your Scriptures the "mark of the beast" is written about and in reality the "mark" is being prepared now but this is not a mark that is going to be put on your forehead. You realize, of course, that all of you are being catalogued and numbered now so that the negative powers that be will know exactly who you are, what you are and all about you. They will try to squeeze the Light workers in many ways by trying to prevent them from having food and goods and from making a livelihood, et cetera. I know it is difficult for Earth people who have had so much freedom to realize that these things can come about. But as time moves on you will see these things happening, just as you see today things happening that a few years back you thought would not be impossible.

Questioner: Is the prevalence of psychic healing helping many people to become more aware?

Yaum: Yes, it is helping people to raise their consciousness and to search, although your scientists, your medical profession is trying to figure it out on a scientific basis alone. There is some science connected with it however as the laws of nature are being applied. But your scientists seem to flinch when anything spiritual is mentioned as they do not like to connect it with what they call religion which is the wrong word to use to describe it. But it does have a spiritual background and in order to understand how it works they will have to become more spiritually minded. They are going to discover some things and understand it to some extent through their scientific research but to understand it thoroughly they must reach it through spiritual understanding.

Now, my friends, I extend to each of you my love, my peace, my joy. Go in peace with a greater love for your fellow man. Peace, peace. ✨
