Zalhem: My greetings to you, my beloved children. I am Zalhem.

Since this is the season when you celebrate the birth of the Christ Child, I should like to spend just a few moments discussing this.

The Christ, as you know, is the symbol of pure love and of course this was part of the message that the Christ brought to earth man. It was a message of love, of necessity for mankind to understand and to develop this aspect of himself.

Most individuals have at least a spark of this love within them. Any expression of love is a part of the Christ love, such as love for mother or father, love for brothers and sisters and perhaps the strongest being love for one's own offspring. But these are only a slight expression of the true love or the perfect love, the perfect Christ love. In order for one to bring this Child, for it is a Child in a manner of speaking, in that it requires nourishing, it requires a becoming aware of and a becoming aware of the true nature of this aspect of man and realizing that in order to reach that stage of perfect love it will require nourishing, caring for, working with and for just as does a child. The more you become conscious of this love and the more you cultivate it the more you will begin to realize the greatness of it, what it can do for you and what you can do through it for others to bring new light and new hope into the life of others through love, through the expression of this love, the use of this love, for it is much like a muscle in the body. The more it is used the more perfect it becomes.

The less it is used, the weaker it becomes. So, let us ever be aware of this aspect of ourselves and use it and strengthen it so that it may become that perfect Christ love which encompasses a love for all things and brings one into oneness with all life, gives one an awareness of the greatness of God's creation. New horizons begin to open up before us and we see life in a much different perspective and all things about us become sweeter.

Life takes on a new dimension. My beloved ones, as you go forth upon your path will you grow ever stronger in the Christ love and may you be able to spread that love to others that will bring them into an awakening that life is much greater than they had realized.

My friends, the time is not far off when you will have the opportunity to use this talent as you have never had the opportunity before. And with this you will be able to bring hope to people who have never had hope. You will be able to bring light to those who have never seen the light. So let this light, this love, grow strong within you and may all the great ones pour forth their love and surround you in it that it may strengthen the Christ love in you.

Go in peace, beloved ones, walk in His peace and be ever mindful of His love. Peace, go in peace. ☸
