Mr. R.: I greet you, my friends, in the light and love of understanding.

I am what you have termed as your local contact. I have spoken with you many times. Perhaps at this times, due to the fact that another within your city is also working with you, I should give you an identification. As you know, we do not have names, we know each other by vibration. Therefore, I shall create an identification for you. Henceforth you shall know me as Mr. R. However, I have many things in mind that I should like to say to you. Take them for what they are worth to you. You are the judge. If what I say is of use to you, I am happy if it will help you upon your road to higher truth.

The day has come, beloved ones, when you must discern truths.

Many truths have been taught among your religions. In our opinion each of your religions, your sects, have some truth, but there is not one upon your planet that has a corner on truth, so to speak. If this be true, then all have truths to yet be learned. I should also like to state that truth is never ending.

It moves onward before us. We can only receive the truth that we are capable of receiving at our present level of understanding. Therefore, we must constantly strive to raise our level of understanding. As all of you here know, all truth is based upon law. We live by the law of the Universe. These laws are universal. They apply not only to your planet but to all other forms of life throughout the many galaxies in space. And what is the greatest of these laws, my beloved friends? Answer—Love is the greatest. You have spoken well. Then first of all we must learn to love. To love our creator, that is the first law.

If we love our creator, we cannot help but love our fellow man. We cannot help but love ourselves, for we are that creator. That is why we are all one.

We are all parts of the whole, therefore we must love one another.

All laws existing throughout creation are just. Your creator did not create laws that you could not comply with. In creating these laws he took into consideration the various levels of life. So the law was not created so that one level of life could easily conform and to another it should be very difficult for him to conform, due to his level of life.

Much has been written concerning Laws of Creation, but you see again, beloved ones, when you attempt to place in words certain ideas, immediately you are confronted with interpretations. This too, is not altogether a stumbling block, for in so doing if one is sincere, they use their God given power of reasoning and of searching within, through that higher consciousness which we all possess, the answers that will bring the true meaning.

It is well that these things be discussed among you, for often a spark is set off in your mind by the word of another which brings about a clearer understanding of some particular question that you might have. There, you see, is where it is important to maintain an open mind, an open heart and consider the expression of your brother, regardless of his level of understanding, for often little gems of wisdom flow from the mouths of the lowly. Truth is where you find it, and it can be anywhere. Much truth is found in nature. Many of your people have gained great wisdom in the study of the insects, of the flowers, the trees, of nature in general. Be aware of truth in all places.

A great percentage of misunderstanding, of misconcepts among the people of Earth, have come from misinterpretations. Remember always in interpreting the laws of your creator, that they must be flexible enough to apply throughout the universe. This, my friends, is a key. The time has come when the people of Earth must learn and understand Universal Law. Those who have not the ears to hear, nor the eyes to see, shall not move with their planet into the New Age.

Great wisdom must be used. Recognize wisdom when you hear it and see it. Do not become steeped in your beliefs, because many of them will need to be changed in order to understand and apply the law. Much has been given to you in the past. The brothers who are working with your planet, for you people, have brought you much Truth. but it has been brought to you in such a manner that you must put forth some effort to understand and apply it, and that is as it should be. We could give you many of these things in so many words and say to you "This is the way it is. You must believe this." But this is not our way. For you must choose, my brothers. It is in your choice that you shall prove yourself. I shall repeat something that has been said many times, "We cannot make your choice for you, this you must do." Think well upon what I have just said.

There is great work to be done among your people. You can be of great service, but the requirements are very stiff. It is not easy in the environment in which you have received your training, to be humble. These things must be overcome. The ego must not become inflated. You must be the least among them in order to be the greatest, for I, of myself, can do nothing. It is the Father within me that doeth the works. I, of myself, am nothing, but I and the Father are all things. There is no limit to what I and the Father can do.

The I AM. That word has been much misinterpreted in your Holy Scriptures. Your great Avatar often spoke of the I AM, but how has it been interpreted by your people? They have taken it to mean the man himself, but the I AM that he spoke of was not the man, it was the I AM that you all possess. The Father within. That higher part of you that is the creator. He spoke not of himself as the man. You see much of the true meaning of his teachings have been lost by misinterpretations.

I say unto you again, love one another, for you are all one in this great creation. Try to understand the true meaning of love, for it reaches far, must farther than you can possibly realize in your present level of understanding. Learn together, help one another, receive from one another in love and understanding, for by so doing your growth shall be much more rapid. For all of you have so much to give to each other, of only you will see it.

Questioner: I would like to know what fields we are in, referred to in the sixth chapter or Revelations?

Mr. R.: Giving information of this kind is not altogether our work. A great deal has been written in your scriptures; there is a great deal to be interpreted. There are many keys for interpreting the writing. Many of these have not been available to your people. In searching the scriptures, you have found many things that seemed to be contradictory.

It has been pointed out by many of your people, but this is only due to a lack of understanding, the lack of being able to interpret. To go into the interpretation of many of these things would take great lengths of time.

This, at this moment in your growth, is not of importance. Before understanding of all of these writings shall be made completely clear, there must be brought about among all of you, a higher consciousness of love, of understanding, between you. When these things have been established, these vibrations, your understanding shall become much clearer. These things shall all become clearer, understandable to all of you.

Questioner: Then we must establish a greater love between us that will bring into manifestation all these things in the future?

Mr. R.: That is correct and that must be established. First things must come first, and the first I have given you tonight. That when established shall bring about all others. Your Master Teacher stated that the greatest of all the commandments was to love.

My blessings, my love I leave with you.

Goodnight, beloved ones. ☸
