Zalhem: I will speak with you for a few moments tonight on a subject that you are all familiar with and one that is much discussed and talked about in your religious and metaphysical circles.

The word faith you hear used very often. People will say to you that you must have faith. You must have faith in this or in that or in someone. This is a very loosely used term. Your Great Master once said, "If you have faith as a mustard seed you can move mountains" and this, my beloved friends, is true, otherwise He would not have uttered these words.

If you are to walk the Path that has been pointed out to you, it is necessary that you have this faith, faith in your Creator and faith in your fellow man. It is well to take stock of yourself from time to time and ask yourself some questions. Find out if you really have the faith that you profess to have or think that you have. Quite often we find ourselves having great faith, or so we call it, as long as our faith does not take us into areas where we cannot see the results. It is well to ask yourself if you are willing to step out on complete faith. Many of us are willing to serve the Father as long as it does not take us into areas where perhaps there is doubt as to the results. Yet we feel it is a task or a project necessary to be done.

When your Great Master first sent His disciples out to do their ministry He allowed them to take nothing except what they had on their backs. No gold or silver were they allowed to take. They were only allowed to take with them their faith in the Father. This was their great test but they succeeded because they had full faith in the Father and were willing to accept His provisions as He provided them.

It is necessary, beloved ones, to learn that when you have full faith in the Father, when you are doing His work and His will, that full provisions will be made. The Father never fails to care for His children and to provide for them. He only asks that you do His will and His bidding and have full faith, complete knowing that all will be well. That every step of the way you will be guided and provided for. It is a knowing, a complete knowing, but have you asked yourself this, have you asked yourself if you are willing to step forth wherever the Father may lead you in full faith and full knowing that all will be well?

Many Earth people claim to have this faith but when it reaches the point where some sacrifice must be made or their material possessions might be affected, they shrink, they draw back, their faith ends at that point. The Father does not accept this kind of faith. This is not faith this is but a mockery of faith. The Father asks His children to go all the way for Him and when they do this and have passed the test their cups will be filled to overflowing.

Many opportunities will be opened up for those who want to walk in the Light and are trying to do their utmost to follow in His footsteps. The opportunities will be presented for them to test this faith, to see how far they are willing to go. Those who go all the way will be the ones that will become full heirs to the Throne. Those who falter and draw back, afraid to take the step, will not enter therein but shall continue to wander in darkness.

May each of you, my beloved ones, falter not when your tests come. May each of you grasp the opportunities that come to you and use them to the fullest, with full faith and knowing that at the end of the trail, the Father's Kingdom, with all its glory, awaits you.

May the peace, the blessing, the love and the understanding of all the Great Ones be invoked upon each of you now.

Peace, my friends, peace, peace. ☸
