Samuel: Greetings to you my beloved friends. I am Samuel. It is my privilege to again come among you. At this time I should like to discuss a subject that I know will be of interest to you since it is a part of your training on the higher sphere planes.

Man has existed upon planet Earth much longer than is supposed or suspected by your scientists and researchers of today. Man has existed upon planet Earth much more than 500,000 years. Another thing that has been assumed by your scientists and researchers, that Man evolved from cannibalism, from savagery. My friends, this is not true either. But rather, Man, through time and through certain conditions, descends into savagery and then must work his way out again.

But be this as it may, in these ancient times of dim far past there was certain information given to some of the more advanced beings of that time. These were known as the Divine Inspired Writings and from these writings Man's early religion developed. Through time, through the rise and fall of civilizations, much of the teachings of these writings have been lost. However, in certain parts of the world, in certain temples, these writings do still exist and the few Masters that are upon your earth today have gained their knowledge through the study of these writings.

Now, in the Seventh Commandment of Creation, it is stated that Man was created with a Divine Given Power, giving him dominion and control over the elementals and all other forces of earth. This is a spiritual power and lies within all people, be they masculine or feminine. Now I am not going to give you a scientific lecture, however, the use of this power is a science and it is a science far beyond any science known to your scientists today. However, as it was taught by the Masters of old, it was taught in such a simple manner that any 15 year old child could understand. They did not use phrases and fancy words to hide their ignorance, for they knew their subject well and did not need to do this. Every force is vibratory in nature. At the source, this vibration is set up and travels outward from the source. Now, these vibrations can be of a high or low nature. In all cases where one opposes the other, the higher vibration will dominate.

These vibrations can come from the essence or the unanalyzable or from the analyzable.

Man has the power within him to create a force, a vibration, of a very high nature. And once he has learned to control and use this force, and depending upon the opposing vibration, he can vary the degree of the vibration to suit the need for which he wishes to use it.

In the case of gravity as you call it, known to the Ancients as Cold Magnetic Force, there is recorded in some of your histories, certain ones in certain savage races who were able to float through the air. I believe there is a record of a certain Monk in one of your religious recordings who, at certain times when his spiritual vibrations reached a certain height, would float away up to the top of the temple. This is an example of the force being used without knowing you are using it. But Man has the ability to control this force.

Your Master Jesus, the greatest Master that has ever walked the planet Earth, demonstrated this power when he walked upon the water. This was no miracle. He merely used the knowledge that he had learned in the several years that he spent in one of the great temples of Tibet, studying under the Masters there, learning to interpret and read the ancient teachings and he became the greatest Master that has ever walked the planet Earth.

Another time He demonstrated this power when He entered a house in flames and came forth carrying a child in his arms, surrounded by flames on all sides. Yet He was not burned, nor were his garments scorched, nor those of the child. These are practical demonstrations of the use of these powers.

Another legend found in your Bible is that of the three Hebrews who were thrown in the fiery furnace. Yet they were not burned, neither were their garments scorched. But these men were Masters and they merely raised their vibrations to create a vibratory field about them higher than that of heat. Heat creates a vibration. It is a force. If you can raise your vibrations above that of the heat, you can pass through the hottest furnace without suffering any damage from the heat. This field extends about them far enough that all their raiment is protected. Man of today knows little about his mind. He is beginning to discover a few things. This power is a power of the mind, for all is mind.

Another legend that demonstrates this power that is found in your Holy Writings is that of Moses when he confronted the priest of Pharaoh and their staffs were turned to serpents. Pharaoh's priest was much enlightened in these matters and he was also able to turn his staff into a serpent. Yet Moses' serpent devoured that of the priest. This was seen by Pharaoh and all of those present. But the reason Moses' serpent was more successful was because Moses was a greater Master of the powers. This, to put it in your terms of today, would be mass hypnosis. Moses was more powerful than the priest, therefore he gained control of the priest and the priest saw a serpent being eaten by that of Moses, as did Pharaoh and all of the people present because they were all under his control. This my friends, was not a miracle either. It was a demonstration of the power that Man has over the forces, both earthly and elemental.

This knowledge, by and large, has been lost upon planet Earth and in the New Age must be again revived. For Man cannot come to perfection without this knowledge. Neither can the Earth come to its end without Man reaching perfection. So you see, the time is nigh when Man again must gain this knowledge and learn to use it from a spiritual viewpoint, for it is a spiritual power. But like any other force it can be used for good or evil and when Man uses these forces and this knowledge for selfish gain, or anything that will be detrimental to his brother Man, it will eventually bring about his downfall.

I hope that I have not taken too much of your time tonight, but I thought this might be of some interest to you for these are some of the things you will be learning as you go into the higher planes for learning.

And now my friends, as I leave you, I would extend my love, my peace, and my blessings upon all of you and I ask the blessings of all the great ones be invoked upon each of you this night.

Go in peace my friends, go in peace, peace. ✿
