Joseph: My peace I give unto each of you and I greet you in the light of love and understanding. I am Joseph.

Those of us who are working in behalf of Earth people have seen much take place upon the surface of your planet. We have watched it through the ages, have seen your civilizations come and go. Some of us have been part of this from time to time and we have dedicated ourselves to work in behalf of those of planet Earth who are seeking the Light, who are seeking to know His ways and to follow them. To these we have pledged our support and our dedication.

As you know your civilization at this time, and for some time, stands at a period of crisis. Your civilization has had the right and the opportunity to choose its way. It has not chosen wisely, therefore you find yourselves in the position that you stand today, facing great crisis's. Earth man has wasted the resources of your planet and the resources of his own mind. He has built his house upon the sand and now the storms are coming and houses are falling. But I say to you of Earth who have and are following the Light and have built upon the rock, your houses shall not fall. They may be shaken but they will not fall.

The righteous being, though he pass through the fires of hell shall not be harmed, for the Light of protection that he carries with him shall always carry him through.

The times that you face today are mild as to what will be faced in the very near future. You will find that those who stand not in the Light will panic and become violent. Already some of this has been shown among your people in the very limited situations that they have had to face. So how do you think they will act when starvation comes upon them? So I say walk steadfast in His Light. There will be those who will try to sway you, to lure you into their ways, who will try to lead you away from the Light and the temptations will be great. But you must stand steadfast in what you know to be good, to be right and to be just.

Each man, each woman, every soul will be tested and only those who stand as sturdy souls in the everlasting Light will survive the tests. This has been pointed out to man over and over again in his Scriptures, in the prophecies. Yet by and large it has been heeded by a very few. It is difficult to understand, after the many, many experiences of mankind, that he still does not realize that he lives by the law of cause and effect. That he brings unto himself all things whether it be of a positive or negative nature. This is the law and it cannot be escaped by anyone. So man should soon realize that he should weigh each act, each thought against the effect. But seldom is this done.

Build for yourself those treasures in Heaven by the thoughts and deeds of the now and you will have treasures there far beyond your expectations. Purify your body, your mind and your soul through your acts and your thoughts and your deeds and you will not need to be concerned for the future and what it holds. For no matter what the conditions become around you, you will still reap that which you have sown as will your neighbor.

So what would you reap, people of Earth, what would you like to reap? It is up to you. You must make the decision for it is you that creates the thought and the act.

Now my beloved friends, before I leave your presence I should like to leave this instrument for a few moments and stand before each of you and pour out my blessings upon each of you.

(Pause)

It is done. I invoke the blessings, the love and the peace of all the Great Ones upon each of you this night.

Go in Peace. ✿
