Teacher: All hail to you there, my friends. I come to you from afar, but it matters not from whence I came or where I go. I came because I received your vibrations of sincerity.

You are searching, but beloved ones, for what are you searching? Are you completely aware of what you are seeking? Are you really seeking his kingdom? Do you know what is required to enter therein? Very few of your people realize what it is to seek the true kingdom. Many profess to have attained this height, yet they know not what is required. Every man's God is different. Each worships his God in a different manner. Your God, my friends, is that which you hold closest and dearest to you, what so ever it might be. Be it your ambition in life, as of success in a specific field, be it attaining high position in your culture, or what so ever it might be. That is man's God. Man has not yet learned that these things must be secondary. These things are of little importance in the evolution of one's soul.

If one is to find his kingdom and enter into this kingdom, there are certain requirements. And these have not been clear in the teachings of your religions. They have been distorted. They have been watered down, so to speak. But the way was shown by a great Master Mind whom you knew to you as Jesus the Christ. At the turn of this Age, man was not yet able to comprehend a God that he could not see. Therefore it was necessary to manifest in the flesh and so he came. Enoch was chosen for this mission, due to his great spiritual growth through his previous incarnations. And Elijah was chosen to play the part of the harbinger to prepare the way and so they were incarnated into the flesh. John, as he was known in the incarnation, symbolized the preparation for the entering to this kingdom. He was purity. Purity in its purest form. He was to prepare the way for the Christ. For without purity, the Christ, or the Love or God, which is King, cannot enter the heart of Man. So John was pure of heart, pure of mind and pure of deed. This was his mission and he prepared the way for the Christ. And so must each of us, if the Christ is to enter in. In terms of man, this means that man must overcome all of the carnal desires. He must be master of these. When he has accomplished this, he has passed the test of purity and the Christ can enter in.

The Christ child is then born in the heart of man. And universal Love becomes a part of him. Through this love he must overcome all things as did Jesus the Christ. He met every situation in life that any man could meet. All of the trials and temptations had to be mastered by him to prove that it can be done and that man can enter in and also become a Christ. He was truly the savior for your planet for the name Jesus is Savior. But he does not save in the way that it has been implied many times, for there is no miracle of God that will bring man to the higher truth other than his own will and efforts.

But man's greatest asset is his will. What he wills to do, he can do, be it good or be it evil. And man's greatest healing power is his own will.

My friends, there is no other way for man to reach these heights. The road is narrow. It is hard. It is rocky and many are the pitfalls along the way. There are also many helping hands along the way if you keep your faith and your sincerity. The starting point is what you call the Golden Rule. Do not do to another man what you would not have him do to you. This is the starting point. As one grows in the universal Love and understanding, he will not do wrong to another nor will he harm or destroy any of God's creation. It matters not how small or insignificant it might seem. Even the lowest creeping things become a loving creation of the Father-Mother God. And you would not bring harm to it. For it is also a thought of God as are we all.

I would that each of you find your way rapidly and as you seek diligently and sincerely, you will find the way opening for you. You will find revelations coming to you that will guide you and make straight your path. Beloved ones, I must leave you now. As I leave I should like to invoke the blessings of our brotherhood, of the great Silent Brotherhood, upon each of you. And I ask that each of you in your search for truth, love and understanding, may receive much help from these. My Peace I give unto you.

My Peace I leave with you. Go in Peace beloved. Go in Peace. ☸
