Elder Brother: My greetings and my blessings I bring to you, my beloved children.

As to my identity, let us just say that I am one of your Elder Brothers. My love for you is great, much greater than you could possibly realize, for you know not love as we know it. I have a great love and concern for your planet and its peoples. I have assumed a great responsibility to your planet long ago in your time and yet so short a time ago in our time. I expect to fulfill my responsibility to its fullest within the laws of the Universe that were set forth upon creation by the One and Great Source.

You, too, my friends, have a responsibility. It may not be as great a responsibility as your Elder Brothers carry but perhaps in comparison it would be as great, for we are not given responsibilities beyond our capabilities. The only reason we are not able to fulfill our obligations and responsibilities is because within ourselves we do not have the faith. My beloved children, within each individual lies the strength, the ability and the wisdom to fulfill that which was assigned to him or her. The time grows short, my friends, for these responsibilities to be fulfilled and you must muster every ounce of faith and determination that you have.

You are, my friends, a part of that great Universal Spirit of Creation that you call God. You are an extension of that, as am I and all of my brothers and sisters. The only reason one individuality reaches a higher state of consciousness than another is because he or she has allowed a greater portion of this great Universal Presence to express through them. They have developed themselves to a greater degree, have realized a greater part of their potentiality. I, like you, my friends, am growing and allowing more and more of this to express through me. I have not reached the ultimate. I have a long way to go but I am willing to continue to strive for the ultimate goal.

Many have fallen along the wayside. Many more will, but you would only fall by the wayside if you allow the lower nature to become predominate in your growth. So realize your divinity. Declare your potentialities. Set your goals for the tasks that are before you. Work diligently toward these goals. See them clearly in your mind's eye, see what you are attempting to attain and never let it waver. Do not let anyone tell you that it cannot be done or discourage you in your pursuit but hold steadfast that which you wish to attain and if you do this you are bound by Universal Law to reach your goal.

I do not mean by this that you just sit and wait for it has been said many times, "Faith without works is dead"! So work, my children, but work by doing that which is necessary to do and holding ever in your mind a clear picture of what you are to attain. There will be obstacles. There will be those who try to discourage you, who will tell you that it can't be done. But let every word and thought of yours be in the direction of success. For what you have created in your own mind will be that which will come to you and if it be of a material nature or of the nature of knowledge and wisdom or whether it be one of health, you can bring about that which you wish if you are determined enough to follow these rules. As you grow and go forward on the spiritual path, you will begin to see more clearly what I am talking about and you will realize the importance of the word and the thought, primarily the thought.

So, my children, go about your tasks rejoicing, knowing that you are doing the Father's work, that you have been chosen by Him to carry out whatever task you might find yourself faced with at the moment. As you prove yourself great in the small things, so will the greater things be given to you to do. But each must prove his sincerity, his capabilities and his willingness.

Failure should not be a word of your vocabulary, neither should "I can't" be a part of it. Little do people realize how much they retard themselves by saying, "I am a failure, I cannot do this, I cannot do that." The more you use these terminologies the more you program yourself for failure. Never admit a failure in the sense of calling it a failure when it was only an experience which will enable you to see more clearly, to enable you to avoid the same pitfall a second time. How often do we see people who use loosely these terminologies, falling continually into the same pit, never realizing why this is happening to them.

Beloved children, do not allow this to happen to you but go forth knowing every moment that every effort you put forth is bringing you closer and closer to your goal, to fulfilling your responsibility that was given to you by your Creator. Let us realize that we each are a part of this Great Creative Spirit carrying out our part of the evolvement of humanity.

Creative Spirit functions only through its creations and you and I and all others in this creation are a part of that creation evolving by carrying out our assigned duties that will gradually, if fulfilled, bring us to a full realization of what creation is all about.

I, and my brothers and sisters that exist on my level of creation, send forth their light, their love and their understanding to each of you. And we call upon our Elder Brothers and their Elder Brothers to pour forth their light to each of you and to planet Earth.

Peace, my children, peace. Our peace we leave with you, our peace we give unto you. Go in peace, go in peace. Peace, peace, peace. ☸
