Mr. X.: I greet you, my beloved friends, in the light of love and understanding.

Understanding! Above all of our getting, get understanding, for with understanding comes wisdom, and with understanding and wisdom comes power. Power without understanding and wisdom, would not be well to have. That is evident in your world today. Too many individuals upon your planet today have gained power over the people, but they do not have wisdom and understanding to go with it. Therefore, you face the conditions which exist upon your planet. You face inharmony, with inharmony you have chaos, wars, sickness, disease or all types. All things of a negative nature, my friends, are a result of inharmony, lack of love, lack of understanding.

You see, my friends, all things are governed by Universal Law. The creator does not punish anyone; he does not bring about punishment to bring you into line. Man creates; he is an extension of the creator. So, you see, he is a creator. Man in his own right is a creator. Each thought, that passes from you is a creation. Guard these thoughts, for they are most important. They bring about results, creation. You are what you think you are. Think well upon this, for it is important. All things are governed by law. The law brings about retribution, through our own actions. Your Creator sees you only as good. In the eyes of your Creator there is only good. Think well upon what I have said.

Our purpose in coming to your planet at this time is to attempt to bring about a new awareness among your people, to attempt to make them aware of a new Truth, a new understanding, that goes far beyond their present concepts. It is very necessary at this time that your people be made aware, for your system, your solar system, in its sojourn through space, is entering a new cycle, a new area of space—for the vibratory rates shall be higher—a fourth dimension, so to speak. In order for you of earth to enter this new age your spiritual awareness must be raised. For in this dimension it will not be possible to exist in the present spiritual awareness of the majority of your people.

And now I know, the questions arises in the minds of some of you, as to what happens to those who are not able to raise themselves, who are not able to qualify for this new dimension. It is unfortunate, that the majority of the people of planet Earth, have not been given the truth about themselves, about life. Because, you see, if you understood life, death, or what you call death. We prefer to speak of it as a transition. This transition would take on an entirely different aspect in the minds of people. For death, you see, is not death at all, it is really birth. In reality, you, at the time of the transition, are being born into the real life from this state of hypnosis that you now exist in. This vehicle which you call the physical body, is merely a vehicle which you are using to gain certain experiences. When you have finished with the cloak, you lay it aside. So it is with this vehicle. When you have finished with it, you lay it aside. It is of no more use to you.

There are many schoolrooms and many classrooms throughout the universe. This is only a schoolroom in which you learn. So you see, those who are not ready for the higher classroom, shall simply lay aside this vehicle and take on another in a classroom suitable to their level of understanding. It is that simple, beloved ones.

Your planet is the only one in this system that is not quite ready for the transition. That is why we have come, we of the Confederation, including those from other planets in your system and from planets in many other systems. Yes, and those from the etheric realms are also aiding. We have come to help you in this time. During this transition, many changes will take place upon the surface of your planet as have taken place before in other transitions, for, you see, systems, planets, and individuals are ever evolving, onward and upward. Man does not digress; he is ever progressing. And so, we move on, ever looking outward and upward, to a newer and higher understanding. Those above, ever reaching down to lend a helping hand to his brother who is coming after. For as we serve those who are struggling just behind us, we also receive help from those who are just ahead of us. It is a never ending chain.

Now, my beloved friends, I must leave.

My blessings, my love and understanding I extend to you. Odina, my friends. ♣
