Hatton: Greetings, I greet you in the love and light of the infinite creator. I am Hatton.

Friends, there is so much yet to be done for Earth people in order to prepare them for what is ahead. Response to spiritual uplift is not as good as it might be. Earth man is prone to cling to what he has, rather than search for something higher. The dogma that exists in the religious administrations on planet Earth still prevails. The powers that be in those organizations will not give up their power. They insist that man remain in the hypnotic state in which they have placed him, but this will be broken. The spell that has been cast shall be broke, and man shall see more clearly the path that he must follow.

It shall become more and more apparent as the days pass, that the prophecies are at hand. It shall be known by more and more people that the time is now, and the choice must be made. I say again to you, beloved friends, prepare yourselves for these times. Open your hearts and let flow to you the love, the understanding that is yours to have. Now is the time to conquer the ego, the self. Now is the time to master these emotions that have mastered you. Make known to all of these that you are the master, that you are directing your destiny. Let not your hearts be angered at any time.

Maintain within your being an attitude of love, of gratitude. Give thanks daily to your creator for that which you have. Cast out all resentment, attachment, and let flow from you only love and thankfulness. For those that follow this path, many great events portend. Your path will take you through the meadows of service. Your light, your smile, shall brighten the lives of all of those that you pass. Your deeds of love will be many and your rewards will bring you great joy, great peace and great understanding.

May the love, light and understanding of the great Lords of Creation rest in the hearts of each of you this night.

Odina, my friends, Odina. I am Hatton. ☸
