Samuel: Greetings to thee, my brothers and my sisters, I am Samuel.

I would spend a few moments with you this night for I perceive that there are questions in your minds which I will endeavor to discuss with you to the best of my knowledge. I would ask that these questions be not too personal. But be not backward for we are your brothers

Questioner: Are you serving with the same Brotherhood that gave to us our last two lessons?

Samuel: We are all brothers in the Brotherhood. There are many upon your planet today and for sometime past, who are being given opportunities to receive some of the higher teachings. Those who are ready will receive them and benefit by them. Those who are not will of course, not receive them. They will only be received by those who have eyes to see and ears to hear. These teachings have been given out many times through the ages and many times in your age. They have been beneficial to only a few, for only a few seem to have the eyes to see and the ears to hear.

Questioner: Can these teachings be given to those who are in a different geographical location than ours?

Samuel: These teachings are for whoever can receive them. We do not restrict our teachings for only a few. They are given out for those who can benefit from them. You are emissaries of the Christ Light.

Questioner: Brother Samuel, should we be doing more to spread these teachings that we are receiving?

Samuel: You can never do too much witnessing to the Christ. He who witnesses to the Christ shall receive his rewards. There are many souls today who are ready to receive the Christ, they are seeking, they know not what they are seeking for and you may be the one to light that spark in them that will start them on the path to the Kingdom. He who is to be the greatest servant, must be the least among them.

Questioner: Are there any special preparations that we should be making now?

Samuel: It is necessary for all to make the preparations to prepare yourselves, as has been pointed out in the lessons that have been given you. To live the life, to develop love, patience, kindness, tolerance, these are the virtues that must be apparent in those who are to spread His word. Now is the time. His word must go forth. His children must be made aware. If you seek to serve and are sincere in your purpose you will find the opportunities, the channels through which you can serve him. If yours is to be a fruitful life it must be one of love and service to your fellow man, for as you do unto the least of these you have done it unto Him.

You are in the times when your age is rapidly drawing to a close, you are in the overlap. Your peoples are being exposed to vibrations that occur in the overlap and this is bringing about much confusion in the minds of Earthmen, which makes for a great need for understanding and there are those who are searching and are ready to accept and to learn. Your Father-God is not a respecter of persons. You are His children as all mankind are children. His love is deep for all of them and if you are to be like Him, your love must be the same.

Questioner: Will you comment further about our future group procedure?

Samuel: I think that you will find, if you are sincere, and pray for wisdom and guidance, you will find the right ones to share these lessons with. This is something that you do not shout from the housetops or try to force upon people.

You are soon aware even in speaking with a person, whether or not they are receptive. Do not cast your pearls before the swine, but yet do not hide your light under a bushel. If you follow your own prayerful guidance, if you ask sincerely, you will find that the Brotherhood will work with you in guiding you.

For those of the Higher Spirit Realm, who are charged with this work, are coming closer and closer these days to Earth brothers who are attempting to walk in the Light, and will try in every way to guide and help them without violating their own free will or Universal law.

Questioner: Can you tell us anything about Yaum? We have missed him.

Samuel: He has been a very busy man. He has been doing a very great work, very time consuming work that requires a great deal of attention and concentration. But I am sure that he will visit you again in the very near future and that he sends you his love and blessings.

Questioner: Can you enlighten us further concerning the killing of animals?

Samuel: I believe, my beloved sister, that this has been spoken of many times.

There are situations that man finds himself faced with, that he is forced to do against his will. In these situations he shall not be held accountable. But in life's pattern all things are one and, my beloved friends, you have not reached yet the level of understanding to quite comprehend the vastness of creation and of life. But someday as you progress upon your journey of evolution you shall understand these things. You will understand life and its relationship, how it is all tied together and this is what our Great Master Jesus referred to when He said that when you harm one of the least of these you shake the throne of heaven.

Most men have not reached this understanding and until you do your own conscience must be your guide and you and you alone must choose. But man is not altogether responsible for what he does not understand.

Questioner: Are there any effective rituals that can be performed to eliminate our karma for having killed?

Samuel: Many of the primitive civilizations have had rituals of this type and of many other types and to a degree they are effective because sometimes man must do what he must do at the state of evolution that he finds himself in.

Questioner: Are some young people of today violating universal law by living together without marrying?

Samuel: Perhaps I should not get into this as it seems to shake the foundations of your customs. There is nothing wrong with customs, but a piece of manmade paper and few words do not make a marriage and this is what your Master Jesus referred to when he said "marriages are made in heaven." The fact that you hold a legal piece of paper and have conformed to manmade laws and customs does not change a situation. It only protects children in your customary ways and then very poorly.

Questioner: Where does adultery enter in?

Samuel: Many people who have conformed to your laws are still living in adultery because there is no bond between them. There is no true love between them. They do not live by God's laws. Your young people of today have seen with their own eyes the fallacy of marriage. How many are there from broken homes where the parents lived in hate, jealousy? They have not been taught to respect and to obey God's laws and they see the fallacy of manmade laws. Do you not see this? When a man and woman are joined in marriage together, they should not be joined together to satisfy the lower self, the physical desires. They should join together because they have true love for each other and their relations in marriage should be such, one of love and respect, one of trust. But how much of this do you find in the marriages today and in many years past?

What have been the examples set forth for these young people? How can you expect them to respect the laws of marriage when after they are joined together for a short time they need only to go to court and receive a bill of divorce?

Naturally it is better to follow the customs and be married, but they should be taught from childhood the responsibility and the purpose of marriage. It is the joining together of two souls, not the joining together of two physical bodies to satisfy the desires, the urges of the lower self.

It is the belief of many young people today that they should live together, to find out first if they can live together happily before they marry. But it should not be necessary for them to do this because they cannot live together without satisfying their urges and then they bring children into life without knowing the responsibilities that face them. There is nothing wrong with marriage in your society except the joining of those who should not be joined. A manmade, legal marriage does not make a marriage in the sight of God.

Questioner: There are many who do marry thinking that they are deeply in love in spiritual way, then they find that they are not.

Samuel: They are not really in love, they are only infatuated and have a burning desire. They are attracted to someone. One often finds oneself attracted to certain people and then become very fond of them which is often mistaken for pure love, which is not necessarily so. Someday, in the New Age, this will not occur because men and women will have the intuitive knowledge to know when they are properly mated and you will not have the problems of divorce and of illegitimate children that you have today. This has been on the increase in your civilization for many, many years because the people have gradually lost the sense of morality. They have allowed the lower self to master them, they have become slaves to the physical and this, of course, is one of the great overcomings that you have to accomplish before you will be freed from this wheel of incarnation into the physical body. You must become master of the lower self and not be the slave of it. This includes all kinds of dissipation, anger, food. It means a complete balance in all things, moderation in all things.

Now, my beloved friends, I must leave, you, but before I go

I would like to pour out a special blessing upon this new body that is about to come forth and this soul which is to occupy it. Those of you who are receiving these little ones have a great responsibility and especially in these times for you are in very trying times and they shall become more trying.

But if these little ones are given proper love and understanding they can stand forth as great beacons in the times ahead, for the souls that are entering these bodies at these times are souls of great potentiality.

So we bless them, we love them and we surround them with the protection, with the Great White Light of the Great White Spirit. And we also surround them with the Blue Light which will give them peace, love, understanding. Peace, little ones, peace.

As you go forth into your new journey into the life of the physical, hold Him ever in your sight. Walk in the footsteps of the Great Master, Jesus the Christ and your path will be one of great service, and one of peace and joy. Peace, peace, peace to all of you. ✿
