Yaum: Good evening to you my friends. I am Yaum. I wish to extend my greetings to each one of you here tonight. Many of you do not know me. I wish to extend my gratitude to the head of this household for accepting me here this evening.

I should like to spend a few moments tonight on the subject of the Christ and what it means to me, and I wish to say that I am only sharing my understanding with you. If in any way it does not agree with your understanding, you do not necessarily need to accept what I say as your truth. I only attempt to share.

In the beginning there was the Father-God, which is symbolic of the Power aspect, and the Mother, which is symbolic of the Intelligence or Wisdom aspect of the Trinity. As the two breathed forth, the Son, or the Christ was born. The word Christ symbolizes the Anointed one, or the redeemer. Many of your religions refer to this as the Savior. The terminology is not important.

Without the Christ there could have been no creation. The seven Spirits of Creation could not have created without the Son, or the Christ-Love. As the worlds and stars were formed a mighty Spirit was sent forth to each of these stars and planets. These were many in number, but all were anointed with the Christ-Love. The Creative Spirits went forth to sow the seeds of Love in each one of these that it might be present at all times to redeem when man sold out to sin. Thus the Christ is always present to redeem. Regardless of how many times man sells himself, the Christ is always there to raise him up.

At the beginning of every age a Christ manifests in flesh to bring to man his redemption, to lift him up and to give to him the postulates or lessons that have to be learned, the lessons that man should strive to master in that age. The word Christ is a title, and when we speak of Christ we refer to that aspect of God. When we speak of your great Master Jesus, for instance, we say Jesus the Christ or the Anointed One. So it depends on how you use the word, you see.

All man will sooner or later develop all three of these aspects of what you call the Triune God. Most people display a certain amount of one or the other. One may be predominant in a person, such as the Power aspect, and they may not be in the least aware of or show any evidence of the other aspects of Wisdom and Love. Man must master all three aspects to reach perfection. In order to do this, it is very necessary to first develop and master the Christ-Love, for one should not develop the aspects of Power or Intelligence without first developing the Love center. I mean by this that to develop the Power, for instance, before you have the Love and Wisdom to handle it, could be very detrimental to you and your fellow man. I do not mean to say that this cannot be done or is not done in your civilization. There are many who have developed Power and Knowledge, but they have not developed either Love or the real intelligence which is Wisdom.

There are great powers in the universe that man can use and from which he can gain great benefit, but all things have a positive and a negative aspect and they can be used for good or evil. For instance, when gunpowder was first developed it was used for many beneficial things. Then men began to use it to kill each other and they continue to develop more sophisticated ways of doing this. Now you have nuclear power which is far beyond your civilization's wisdom to handle and without intervention you would already have destroyed yourselves. If the Love and Wisdom aspects of God were developed in your scientists they would not use these things for negative purposes. They would develop only peaceful uses for them.

It is sad that your scientists have discovered nuclear fission at all, because it was never intended to be used, except as Nature herself uses it. There are many other sources of energy which are safe and much easier and cheaper to produce, but it sometimes appears that Earth scientists want to do things the most dangerous, expensive, and wasteful way.

If your civilization had developed in all three of these aspects of God, you would not find yourselves in the situation which you do today. First of all, it is better that Man develop the Love aspect, and this is what was brought to you to develop in this Age. You see, as your age began, it was all brought to you in a symbolic manner. There was first John the Baptist, who symbolized Purity. He came to prepare the way for the Christ and the Christ was born in a humble manner. He grew and developed, and demonstrated the Love of God. This was the Love of God made manifest in Man by one who had earned this right.

So one must first purify himself. He must become pure of mind and body before the Christ-child can be born in his heart. Then when this Christ-child is born in his heart, he must nourish it and bring it to maturity. When he has done this the Wisdom or Intelligence and the Power are given him and he will use them to help redeem Mankind.

My friends, may the Christ-child evolve in the hearts of each of you, and may you be able to nourish this Christ-child, to cultivate it and to bring it to maturity quickly. I ask that the love and the blessings of all the Great Ones be invoked upon each of you now.

Go In peace, my friends. Go in peace. ✿
