

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Copyright © 2012 Clyde Trepanier

August 25, 1978

Teacher: Greetings to all of you, my children. It is my pleasure to have this opportunity to once more be with you in this manner and I extend my gratitude for this privilege. Now do you have something you would like to discuss?

Questioner: I don't want to take anyone's time.

Teacher: Time is not of importance. We have lots of time for time is endless so do not be concerned about taking my time.

Questioner: It is so hard for me to know who and what I am.

Teacher: Who and what you are. You were conceived first in the mind of God the Creator and He conceives only that which is perfect. Imperfection is only inharmony. You need to come into harmony with yourself, to know that you are this perfect creation and that in so being, you are in harmony with all life.

See all life as perfect and all those whom you meet or come in contact with and all life throughout the universe, for you are a part of it. You are all one and if you are all one, then you must be in harmony with all life. If all life was created by God then all life is perfect. You, being a part of all life, are perfect. Therefore you have no turmoil. You are in tune and looking forward through the portals of time back to your original position, perfection. Within yourself is this perfection but you cannot find this unless you seek there for it. It all lies deep within you.

The ego must fade away. Self must fade away and you must become a part of this perfection that is in the wholeness of God's creation. All things must be brought into balance. When man's expressions are brought into balance he becomes perfection. Let go of all of these imperfections. They are only phantoms, they do not really exist. They exist only because we have created them and what we create, we can destroy. Create that which is perfect and dissipate that which is imperfect. And as you do this you will find your whole life will change and it will become a life much more perfect, much more creative. The creation of the desires is an important thing but the desires are even more important for we create that which we desire. So let us set our desires high. Desire that only which will bring to you perfection of the mind, of the soul and of the body.

Meditate upon what I have said. Go within often and seek that inner guidance, inner knowing which will bring to you the answers to all of the things that confront you. Each one has within his or herself the answers to all of their needs. It is a matter of becoming still and going deeper and deeper within until you reach that innermost sanctum where the Book of Knowledge is opened to you and there you will find the answers to any problem that you could ever have. Few realize the Truth of this. I know it has been said over and over in our teachings, yet few there are who really grasp the importance of being able to enter that inner sanctum. It is the entrance to the Halls of Knowledge but the door is not flung open unless one really desires it enough to put forth the effort necessary to reach that point. But if you knock it shall be opened.

I will be continually praying for and with you as are others. Our love is not a love as you know love. It is a selfless love which one day all of you will understand.

My love and my peace I leave with you.

August 25, 1978

Joseph: The rules that we suggested to you are rules that were first given many centuries ago in the "Inspired Divine Writings." They have been given hundreds of times by many different Masters down through the ages and are contained in many books.

We had purpose in taking the boy here to the Halls of Learning. He was shown much there which he does not yet recall. There is not anything that has ever been said or written that is of any value that is not contained within these Halls. There is nothing that I could say in relation to Truth, or that you could say, that has not been written or contained in one or more of these books.

Earth people or at least those who are of your world, have strange ethics as far as we are concerned. But there is not a lesson that you have had from any source that I would not be able to show you the same thing written in a book. So we have no qualms about saying the same things that have been said before or even in the same words, if the occasion requires it.

The rules that we suggested to you were given by a Master and merely quoted in another book. The same rules have been given in many books. So we do not think it unethical to suggest these rules to follow.

They were quoted from a Master and the book is merely quoting it from a Master also. So explain this, if you think it is necessary to meet your Earth ethics. We do not have ethics of that kind.

You may find many things that we have said written somewhere, although it may not be in the exact words. Truth has been since the beginning of time and we merely repeat these things over and over that we might learn. Somewhere it had to start and it started with the "Inspired Divine Writings," which were quotes, as you say, from another.

But this does not lessen the importance of the rules or the importance of what has been said or written.

These things are because they are truth.

I leave you with my love, my blessings.

Peace, peace, peace.

August 25, 1978

Teacher: The path of service is the path of growth for as you serve you learn. That is the most rapid process of learning for as you give out it comes back to you if you properly handle the opportunities to serve. It is a process of giving and receiving but always be sure that you take time out to receive, because if you do not, the well will run dry. So the time that you spend in the silence, in going within, will be a most profitable time because therein will you be given the answers to the problems that you will meet and they will be many.

You will find as you go along that you will encounter some very, very difficult problems to deal with and you will need that reinforcement and the wisdom that will be gained in the process of reaching into that inner self. Too often this is forgotten.

The road of service is the road to perfection. It is the fastest way to reach adeptship. The Mystic Path is a much slower path, but the path of service is the most rapid way to the knowledge of the Kingdom. Need I say more?

Questioner: Will you comment on the advisability of purchasing a home now?

Teacher: If it would make you feel more secure and perhaps property would have greater security than currency in your financial institutions.

Nothing in the carnal is 100% safe. Property can also disappear or be destroyed, but it is a far better investment of man's energies at this point than is currency or gold, or diamonds, or jewels of any kind.

But there again you must follow your own guidance in this matter. Your innermost souls should give you the right guidance as to what you should do and where. This should lead you to the proper conclusions and places.

May your paths grow ever brighter in His Light.

Peace, peace, peace. ☸