Yaum: Greetings to you my friends, I am Yaum.

To those of you here who are not familiar with me, I shall ask you to be somewhat tolerant of my English, for I assure you it is not very good. I will ask you to remember one thing. This I am sure that you know, but I should like to remind you that nothing happens by chance. This is something that is well to bear in mind at all times.

My friends, there are great changes that are being faced by your peoples, peoples of planet Earth today. They are going to affect the lives of all of you, of all peoples of Earth. There are many serious problems facing your people, and these problems are being taken very lightly by people. I should like to touch only briefly upon this, because I know that you are aware of these things, but sometimes it is good to be reminded.

Today, again your great country is continuing its nuclear testing, and soon again other countries shall be doing the same. Russia, France, England and soon other powers in your world are going to be in position to do the same thing. The danger at this moment is not so great, however the effects are being felt by your peoples. But if this continues to be built up, more and more of your countries begin to test their nuclear experiments—you see what is going to happen—the effect is going to become very, very, serious.

Unless something is done by the peoples of your planet to bring an end to this madness, the suffering is going to be very, very extensive. I believe some time ago one of your teachers called Hatton, painted a picture for you of the results, and this was not a very pleasant picture. And unless something is done to stop this madness, this is exactly what will come about, and only the people can cause this to be stopped by realizing the danger and bringing pressure to bear upon the few mad minds that insist upon bringing destruction to Earth man.

There is a great deal to be done by all of you in the future to bring about the developments that are going to help your people in the preparation for the times that are ahead, providing they do not bring destruction upon themselves through the madness of which I have just spoken. All of you here are of the proper minds to work in behalf of bringing about the things and the conditions that must be brought into being if the race of people upon this planet are to develop into a race of people that are capable of joining the Cosmic Federation and become a part of a Universal Brotherhood. And this must be brought about on planet Earth within a very few years. For, as all of you are aware of, your solar system is moving into a new area in space, or a new cycle. To accomplish this, in order to be able to be a part of this system—and since you are a part of this system—this has to take place.

At least a percentage of your people must be able to accomplish this, so that a new race, so to speak, can be manifested here upon this beautiful planet which you call Earth.

There is, in the minds of many today, a type of confusion, of indecision, or perhaps an inner feeling of something that is to take place or come about and they do not quite know what this is all about. Many have a feeling of insecurity. Many have a feeling of unrest. They feel that they are not doing what they should be doing, or that perhaps they need a change of some kind, and this is due to the changing vibrations, for you are entering a new cycle, and great changes are coming about for many of your people, for all of your people who are going to be, perhaps what you would call new Age people. Now these feelings or urges, or whatever you wish to call them, mean different things for different people, but to each it does mean a change. So, my friends, if this annoys you or concerns you, do not allow this to happen. Rather, know that this is merely a change taking place in you and try to be open and receptive and in your quiet times of meditation, allow the inner self to bring forth that to you which right for you, for there within will you find that which is right for you, not by someone telling you, but through your own innermost feelings will you find the right way for you.

You were told several years ago that those who did make their decisions in the right direction, would receive help, would be guided, directed and my friends, this is true, for all of you today who have dedicated yourselves to the service of mankind, are truly receiving this help, this guidance, more, much more than you know or realize. Do you believe that you are receiving help?

Questioner: Yes.

Yaum: I am happy to hear you say that, for I know if you have this realization, you are truly getting the help you desire, and you shall find the right path for you if you are sincere in your dedication. The path will open for you, and you will find yourself doing that which will enable you to give the best of yourself to the service of your fellow man and to your creator.

Those of you who follow this path in pure dedication, are going to reap rewards far beyond your most wild expectations. Not in monetary gains, or material gains, but in the understanding that you will come into and be able to use the wisdom and knowledge. For, my friends, out here on the horizon there lies great secrets that will enable you to enhance the lives of your peoples, to bring to them richer lives, to bring to them greater spiritual understanding, knowledge of the universe and a realization of the oneness that you are of all part of this. This realization in itself can bring to you the greatest happiness that man can experience.

Now, my friends, I know that your hour is late. I have taken much of your time. It has been my privilege to spend this time with you. I have been with you for quite some time and I always enjoy very much listening to your conversations, for you all know you all drop little seeds of wisdom here and there, and I thank you for this. I appreciate it, for we can always learn, you know.

I leave you by extending to you my deepest and sincerest love and blessings. It has been my very great pleasure.

Go in peace, my friends. Peace be with you.

You all have very wise and understanding teachers and you get a great deal of help and guidance from these teachers. Without them you perhaps would find Earth life much more difficult. ♀
