Anthon: Peace be with thee, my friends, peace be with thee. Tonight, beloved ones, a special ceremony is being held for thee. Each of thee have present with you tonight your Wisdor, plus two others who are conducting the ceremony. This ceremony is primarily being conducted for the purpose of rising the vibrations of each of you and the surrounding wherein you gather. Now, beloved friends, let each of yet try to maintain an attitude of reverence and gratitude, thus opening the way for this good to enter. As I speak, the ceremony will continue.

Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid, for lo, the I AM is with you at all times. Why, my friends, is fear so prevalent in the hearts of Earth man? Man of Earth has been taught to fear, generation after generation, and fear has become a part of his consciousness. It is necessary for man to live beyond this fear if he is to progress, if he is to reach a state of higher understanding. Man must dig into his consciousness and root out the fears that are lurking within, and he will find that these are varied and many. Let us take these out one by one and examine them. Let us see exactly what they look like, and as we view them in love, we shall find them fading into the nothingness that they really are. Each time we find popping up within us one of these demons, let us quickly pull him into the open and examine him. You will be surprised, beloved friends, at their insignificance.

Why do we fear the words of another? Let us examine closely this small demon. Let us see what he consists of. We find as we look closely, that he is a very close associate of ego and pride. We find that ego is fighting desperately that he may not be suppressed. He desires to stand out, to be noticed, he wants so much to be. So as we view this situation, we discover that in order to eliminate this particular demon, we must suppress Mr. Ego and as we do this, we find that this particular demon has vanished, for we discover that these words or sounds that we feared are not bringing to us harm at all, and we may even find that they have brought to us some good. So you see, beloved friends, if we will take each one of these small demons, examine it closely, and each one, I am sure, will be discovered to have no foundation.

Why am I telling you this? You say, "I know and realize that fear is a great problem in our civilization." But, my friends, I wonder if you realize just how much Earth man is blocked by his fears. Think well upon this, my friends, think well upon it, and then bring to conclusion your findings.

May the Peace, love and understanding of the one great power rest in the hearts of each of you. My Peace and my blessings.

I am Anthon. ☸
