These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.*

Oxal: Greetings in the Light, my friends. I am Oxal.

Your great Master once said, "Seek the truth and the truth shall make ye free." This is stated in our book of religious histories, but there is one thing which was omitted. For he added to this "Seek the truth first which is within your understanding, which you can grasp and use," for only in this way will you prepare yourself for higher truths. In other words, one step at a time. Master what you have and then proceed to master more, for truth is of no value to you unless you can use it in your life. Unless it benefits you, it means nothing.

We have listened to your conversation here tonight and are well pleased with your discussion. We feel that you have gained from such a discussion. Each of you have your task to perform. Try to perform it well, with wisdom and with understanding. As was stated here, the day is at hand, the time is now and you have only a short time to prepare yourself. This is the time beloved friends, for self-development. To learn to know yourself, to recognize who and what you are. To declare and claim your sonship with your creator, to develop love and understanding for your fellow man, for all creation.

This is no time for judging, condemning, criticizing. Condemn not yourself, for every time you do so, you lower your own evolvement. Rather, hold your head high and declare your rightful place with your creator. Your creator is not a respecter of persons. He does not condemn you or criticize you for your mistakes. He has only love for you. Take this realization into your being that you might understand its meaning. Meditate upon it, for once you have this realization established in your being, your progress will increase rapidly.

We who are working in your atmosphere and in your system, are attempting to help you to help yourselves. That is our mission here, but we are also limited to this extent, that we can help only those of you of Earth people who are willing and ready to help themselves. As we described to you many times in the beginning of our contact, we can help only those who have made the choice. In full faith, those who have chosen to serve their humanity in every way possible, those who are willing to give themselves to the service to become workers in that everlasting love and light of the creator.

To those we have pledged our help, our guidance and our protection, and we stand upon our oath. Many have made this choice; many more have not. Those who have not, have very little time now in which to make it. We can only hope that there will be more, before the time has passed.

To those of you who have made the choice, we extend our heartfelt gratitude and humbly offer our services in any way that we can possibly serve you, for we are only servants to a cause that is far greater than we.

I leave you now my friends, by extending to you the love, the understanding and the blessings of my people.

I am Oxal ☸
