Oxal: Greetings in the Light, my friends, I am Oxal.

As you are all aware there has been a great deal of activity in your skies this past year. Many of you have wondered about why this is at this time.

The time is fast approaching when again a Great Master Mind will come, to your planet, to help in bringing in a New Age. The cosmic clock is rapidly approaching the hour and there is much to be done, much to be accomplished in the short time which remains. Therefore the Confederation has had its people and its ships active in great numbers around your planet.

There are many things that they are doing. They are observing your political situations, they are monitoring your leaders and by this I mean all of your world leaders. They are watching the developments of all situations very carefully. They are determined that your planet shall not have the fate of another planet in your system in ages past. They are also observing your nuclear stockpiles, making sure that there is not a danger of accidental detonation. But this is not all of their work.

They are also observing and monitoring individuals. Many individuals upon your planet have been given certain tasks, certain missions to carry out. These are being observed to determine their worthiness and their success. Many have been given opportunities to serve, not directly but in indirect ways, not knowing of course, that they have been led into these opportunities, that the Confederation might see what they would do with these opportunities. These are being observed to determine their qualifications or their worthiness for greater tasks. Many decisions must be made in the very near future concerning many of these things, for only those who measure up will be used in the greater tasks.

There are many from the Confederation upon your planet at this time. Many have been there for long lengths of time, some have been landed recently. Each of these individuals are here to perform a task to observe, to make decisions. There have been and will be many personal contacts take place with these people. They will be contacting certain individuals to convey to them certain things. So, I say to those of Earth who are working in the Light: Be aware, lest you entertain one of them without knowing. Awareness needs to be cultivated more and more by Earth people. Too many things pass you by because of lack of awareness.

Know this: that he or she who is aware, who is observing and conscientious in the duties that they perform, who have their brother man's interest at heart will be the ones who will be chosen to do His work.

So, beloved People of Earth, cultivate these things. Be ever aware of opportunities to serve your fellow man and make the best of every opportunity that comes your way. Do not let it pass you by.

We, the Sons of Adoni, are still in your skies, watching and studying individuals, helping and guiding those who are aware.

I leave you by extending to you the love, the light and the understanding of my people.

I am Oxal. ✿
