Joseph: My greetings to you, my beloved ones.

The subject that you have been studying today is one that all Truth seekers should be knowledgeable about for all are exposed to these dwellers upon the threshold. How soon they come to you or in what capacity, depends upon the mental power of the individual to a great extent. This is why we continually suggest that you develop your mental powers and the wisdom to go with it, so that it might be properly used and directed. For until you have the mental power to deal with these forces you may run into very severe difficulties if you encounter them.

They continually invade the minds of the weaker ones. They play continually upon the weaker minds and this is why you have some of the severe crimes that are being committed today. Most of these are brought about by the invasion of the dwellers upon the threshold.

This is not to say that a highly intellectual mind cannot be invaded and influenced by these forces, for we see quite often some of these minds becoming investigators of the psychic field with no knowledge of it. No knowledge on how to protect themselves, no knowledge of what they are leading themselves into. Often they throw themselves open to the psychic forces and often unpleasant results are encountered. Therefore, anyone investigating the psychic field, should first become knowledgeable of it, of its dangers, and what is necessary to know in order to protect oneself.

By and large your people know little or nothing of this field, and to me it is a wonder that more of them do not suffer more dire consequences than they do. But the vibrations and the intent of the investigator does have some effect upon the results. For like attracts like, and those of high intent are not so apt to attract the devious and mischievous entities of that realm as are those who are of a lesser intent. Those who are seeking out of curiosity and hoping to find some glory for themselves, or hoping to gain monetarily from these contacts, are more apt to attract the lower denizens.

So if you are to follow the path of occultism it is necessary that you know the facts, that you are given a view of both sides, for without the knowledge of both sides of any subject, you are not apt to make wise decisions. If one is to put his head in the sand as does the ostrich, and only see that which he or she wants to see or know about, then they are not going to develop beyond a certain point. It is pleasing to know that or believe that everything is of a constructive nature, and that as long as you believe that, you will never encounter the destructive side of nature. But, my friends, this is not so, for as you grow and develop you are exposed more and more to these forces. The more active becomes the forces of Light, the more active become the forces of darkness. You must learn to deal with both sides of nature, and you can only do this by becoming mentally powerful, by developing your mental forces to where you can call forth the proper energies, the proper forces to protect you and allow you to control these forces as you will.

The Nazarene demonstrated this many times in his sojourn here. He demonstrated his power over these forces. He could call forth and command what you call the evil spirits. He could cast out demons, but the only reason that He could do this was because He was a powerful entity. His mental powers were well developed, and He vibrated at such a rate that any of these entities looking at Him knew that they were no match for Him. They knew that they must give into His commands, that He could command them to do as He willed. He had no fear of them, for He knew that He was in command, and He demonstrated this many times.

If you are to walk in His footsteps, do the things that He did, then you must follow His directions and become a powerful entity as He did. He used His powers wisely and for good and for good alone, never selfishly or for self-gain.

The only self-gain that it should be used for, would be to raise your own vibrations, to become a higher and more powerful ego on the path of evolution.

In all of these things that He did, He reminded you that you also could do these things and greater things. Therefore, beloved ones, if you would attain what He attained, then you must determine that you will follow in His path. You must work and overcome and develop your mental powers as He did.

I leave you, my friends, by extending to each of you the love, the Light and the understanding of our circle.

I ask that the love and understanding of the Great Ones be bestowed upon you.

Go in peace, go in peace, peace. ♣
