Yaum: Good evening to you, my friends, I am Yaum.

Once more it is my pleasure to come among you and to speak with you. Another who bears great light stands among you tonight and is pouring forth his blessings and his love upon you. For this, you should feel very grateful and very humble. I am honored to be in his presence and to have been chosen to speak to you upon this occasion.

To answer the question that arose among you a few moments before you entered your silence, concerning those who will not pass with this planet into the new Age, these, my friends, will return to a location that is equivalent to their present state of consciousness. For, my friends, as you have been told many times, all is consciousness and you are and will be exactly that which your consciousness can create for you. And this, my friends, is why we emphasize so greatly, the importance of increasing your consciousness, to encompass more and more of his universal truth.

Great things lie before you. They are now ready for you to receive, to accept. That is entirely a matter of how rapidly you can increase your consciousness to encompass these things. Do I make myself understood?

Do you see what I am driving at? So much lies in waiting for you, my beloved friends, if only you can accept it into your consciousness, and of course this is what we are all trying to do, regardless of our present state of consciousness.

I have met beings that are in a state of consciousness, that I, as yet, cannot conceive of, and yet I understand that the same thing exists with them. So it appears, my friends, that we are living in a, I hardly know-how to express this in your language, but it appears we are living in a universe of ever expanding consciousness, and it is up to us as to how fast we shall expand our consciousness.

I know in my own experience, I have experienced things that are, or rather that seemed at the time, beyond all comprehension, because at the time my consciousness was just beginning to include these things. But, as I expanded this consciousness, these things became common place, and so, we move on continually to know even greater truths, always expanding, taking in more and more of this great creation and what it consists of.

So, my friends, try to ever expand this consciousness to include more and more of his creation. Insist that it include health, prosperity, happiness, and all of the things that are good and pure in the sight of your creator. Include in this consciousness an attitude of gratitude to your creator; an attitude of humbleness, of humility, and yet one of greatness, for you are great, you are a great being, capable of accomplishing great things. You are a being unlimited in your powers and your abilities. You have only to realize these things and to bring them into being. It is not enough, my friends, to believe or to have faith, you must know from the very core of your being. You must reach a state of knowing these things and accepting them. Earth man has a great lack in his ability to accept. He refuses to accept that which his creator offers him, who asks nothing in return, except to know. So, my friends, reach the state of knowing, know that you are a pure spiritual being, endowed with all the powers of your creator. You have only to expand your consciousness to include these things.

I hope, my friends, that I have been of some help to you. It has been my pleasure again to speak with you. Do you think I have improved on my English language?

Questioner: Very much so.

Yaum: I have been working on this considerably. I find it somewhat easier now to speak to you. Well, thank you, my friends, I believe that you think I have improved.

It has been my great pleasure to speak with you again, and to be with you and to be accepted into this household. As I leave, I leave with you my greatest love, and my blessings, and my thanks for your courtesy in listening to me.

Peace be with each of thee, my friends.

Peace, Peace. ☸
