Yaum: Good evening to you, my friends.

It is again my pleasure to come to you. I should like to extend to the new friends here tonight my special greetings and blessings.

It is my great privilege and pleasure to come among you. After some small conference with the instrument and his Teacher, it was explained to me that you had listened to a dissertation here tonight, telling what had happened to Atlantis and the cause of its downfall, therefore I have chosen to speak to you tonight on a similar theme, in drawing a parallel to the position of your civilization here today, and what is to be expected.

Man, upon planet Earth today, generally speaking, has practically no knowledge of himself. He has made great progress in science, he has developed very rapidly, so to speak, in his knowledge of science he is able to travel at great speeds now through the air, and soon he will be able to travel into space. But before you have traveled into space very far, there is much more you are going to have to know, especially about Man himself and his abilities, his powers, etc.

You see, what happened in the previous civilization, Man gained this knowledge of himself and the powers that lay within him, and these powers were wrongly used. Your civilization is rapidly reaching the point where Man is going to again discover this, and whether or not your civilization will survive and thrive, depends upon Man's use of these powers. As you are no doubt aware, any Law of the Universe, any energy or any knowledge can be used in two directions. It can be used for selfish, individual purposes, or it can be used to raise mankind, and so it is. But first, Man is going to have to understand himself, what he really is. Man has had this knowledge in your civilization which was handed down from previous civilizations and held within small groups, secret groups, so to speak. This knowledge has been passed from generation to generation in these small groups. Soon this knowledge will be released, and Man shall come into a true understanding of himself and his powers.

There have been great efforts to destroy this knowledge, to prove it impractical, to be false, but yet the demonstrations have been so convincing, so foolproof, that it could not be destroyed entirely.

Therefore there are still a few who retain this knowledge and who have it: The Secrets of Man. You see, Man is a threefold being in reality. There are many terminologies used to express this, but as this realization is gradually coming into knowledge, as you all are aware of, that is why there are so many different terminologies used in trying to explain Man. Some call it the subconscious, the conscious and the superconscious, and in some of the ancient lores it was expressed as three different entities, a Man consisting of a lower spirit, or entity, a middle entity and a higher entity working in conjunction and perhaps this is a truer explanation of this.

You are all aware that under hypnosis a person can be, through suggestion, caused to do what seems to be ridiculous things, do things without any thinking or reasoning. Of course this is done by directing the subconscious or the lower entity, which has no reasoning power, which does not reason, does not think and will do only as he is directed. His ability to reason is practically nil. Reasoning comes entirely from the conscious, or the middle entity. So, you see, when Man has learned the powers that he can use, which happened in the days of Atlantis, through a form of hypnosis, the middle or conscious was blocked or completely destroyed, you might say. The law for some was directed by the one in power, and he became practically a robot or a slave and would do only that which he was directed to do. So many people were enslaved in this manner.

Now then, to draw the connection between the Higher or the Superconscious or the Higher Self, this is definitely a separate entity. Sometimes it is called, I believe, by some of your religions, a Guardian Angel. It is the actual consciousness which you call God or Christ-Consciousness. As I say, there are many terminologies for these things. The important thing, my friends, is to learn to instill in your consciousness, the Presence of the Higher Consciousness and to be able or to learn to be in contact with it, for this is the Consciousness of your being which will, when you have made solid connections, will protect you. This is the voice that you hear when you are warned of some danger. This is the voice that you hear, that so many say that it is God speaking to them. So it is very important to learn to become aware of this Consciousness, this Higher Consciousness which is also a part of you, yet does not dwell within a physical body as does the other two. But unless you have established this, it is not possible for this Consciousness or Entity or whatever terminology you wish to use, to get through to your conscious and to give you the guidance and protection that is right for you. I beg your pardon, I am having a little trouble with the instrument's voice box tonight. It seems to be giving out on me. Is that the right terminology? He has had very little of this for some time now; perhaps we should use him more often.

But to get back to our subject, it was the people in that civilization, who had not reached the awareness, who had not established the contact with their Higher Selves that were enslaved through a powerful form of hypnosis and their conscious was blocked to the extent that they became completely controlled and were practically nothing but living robots.

Questioner: Hope that won't happen again.

Yaum: I certainly hope that it shall not. But if your people can be made aware of the seriousness of the situation that they face when they come into these knowledges, if wisdom can be instilled in the people, and the importance of using their knowledge for the good of all mankind, then your civilization will flourish, will prosper, will grow into a great civilization where man shall live in peace, love, and harmony. He shall not live by the sweat of his brow. He shall move on and become a true creator. You are all creators now, you are creating every minute of your life. Every thought you think, every word that you speak is creating. Man is a creator, and he shall become an even greater creator as he grows into greater knowledge. But knowledge without wisdom can be disastrous and this, my friends, is what has occurred in many civilizations. It has not only occurred upon your planet, but it has occurred on many others. So, you see, when this happens, a civilization must start again, must again rise up through evolution and again try to cross the threshold into understanding.

Now, my friends, I have promised to vacate this instrument. It has been a great pleasure, a great privilege to be with you. I wish to extend my gratitude to this household for accepting me and to the rest of you for accepting me in your midst. I extend to each of you my very, very sincere blessings and may each of you, in your search for understanding, knowledge and wisdom, reach great heights rapidly. And may you each be able to extend your knowledge and wisdom to help others to reach their goal.

Questioner: Thank you for coming.

Yaum: It has been my privilege and my pleasure.

Peace be with you, my friends, peace. ❀
