

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Clyde: Something very strange going on here. Not sure at this moment just what it is, but to begin with, there is a bright blaze of light around each one of us. I have been picking up a very strong vibration. I have the feeling that someone wants to tell me something, but I'm not just sure yet. Yea, okay. Yes, I'm getting this mentally and very strongly. I don't see anyone, but I'm getting this very strongly and mentally and this is rather new and rather unusual. This individual is saying that:

Teacher: At this time, there are many people who are being what you might call forced into situations that will require them to learn more about themselves and more about ways and means of helping themselves and learning more about new methods of helping oneself and helping others.

The time is fast approaching when it will be necessary to have knowledge of a lot of these new methods of treating and of healing other than just mental. Of course, we know that the will is the greatest healer. But, not everyone has developed this power of will and, therefore, are going to need other methods which will be much more beneficial than those used by your professional people, especially in the medical field.

There are, however, those in other fields of healing that are learning new methods and are accepting new energy methods and dietary methods, cleansing methods and what have you. And, in your own case, this is somewhat the situation. But, you have been following quite well in the right direction, due to your own intuitiveness and your own willingness to accept the guidance given to you and your husband. However, you do have a way to go yet before you have reached the point of where you are prepared to take final steps that will solve your problem. But, you are going to be guided into the right path, the right methods. There will be this information coming to you in various ways and, if necessary, you will be brought in contact with certain individuals who will be able to help and guide you in the final steps of your elimination of your problem.

Many people, as I have said, are finding themselves in much the same situation. And there is a purpose for this. For one only knows through experience and when one has experienced situations, they know and know that they know. Without the experience and actually having to do a certain thing one does not really know. And you are one who must know, for the service that you will be required to give in the future. It will be necessary for you and your mate to know.

That is as much as I can give you at this time, but be not anxious, have faith, keep an open mind, be willing to learn and be willing to serve to the ability that your experiences will qualify you to so do.

Our love and our blessings are ever with you. Have faith, beloved, have faith. ♀
