Mr. R.: Greetings in the light of love and understanding,

There is much to be learned by your people concerning other levels of life. But beware of false knowledge that originates from the ego of some of your brothers. In their ignorance, their lack of understanding can cause you much discomfort. We only suggest, never force or harm anyone. We will guide and direct you in every way possible. Each in a different way, each in a different direction, but all leading to the same goal. Each to express in love, in his or her own way, through the Divine intelligence.

There are some beings from other planets, other systems, other realms. There are planes and levels of life around and about your planet. These levels of life vary. Beings come and go. Sometimes they are in the physical and then in the etheric. There are all levels of understanding in this realm. There are etheric beings beyond these realms who have great wisdom, great understanding. They are very high beings and have great wisdom. There is no need to fear these beings, many are among you. They are working in your behalf, trying to guide and help you in your evolvment. These beings are often seen by highly sensitive people as light. They are seen in many forms, or blobs of light as you call it. They are seen in many colors also, depending on what they are attempting to do at that particular moment.

There are many, many levels of life throughout space. There are those living on planets and those living just in space. You would be amazed at the life that exists in space, at the things that can be accomplished in space. Many beings have tremendous powers, that even we cannot conceive of. Many of them exist in bodies that would not be recognized by you as bodies. There are even those who so far as we know are only an intelligence. From what we know of them, and we know very little, they appear only as blobs of light, but we prefer to speak of them as intelligence's. They have great wisdom, inconceivable wisdom and knowledge.

There is much that needs to be learned by your people in the new age, sciences of which you never dreamed. Your scientists at this moment are beginning to glimpse some of the advancements that shall come about in the new age. Your people are being made aware of these things. In the past few days your scientists have made statements concerning what shall take place in the future. Some of these things were very accurate, others were not. Much more is known by them than they are willing to reveal at this time, but gradually these things shall come about. Your experiences shall increase your evolvment, and so shall your understanding.

The first step in evolvment, my beloved friends, is love. Love is the catalyst. I say unto you, love one another, love. Love that shall go far beyond personal love and be so deep that you can see nothing but good in every person who you contact, in every situation, in all things.

Always have a positive viewpoint. Realize there is only good. Through this realization you can bring about good. You are what you think you are, and others are what you think they are. By being positive at all times, seeing only good omnipotent ... if enough of your people would do this, the conditions on your planet would change rapidly. Much chaos could be avoided and much suffering ... much more joy could be brought forth.

Your people have been taught to see the negative side more than the positive. Remember, thought is powerful, for once set in motion, it brings results. It works both ways. Your people must realize this. They are victims of their own thoughts. They bring upon themselves chaos, suffering and unhappiness. These are the things that we are trying to bring your people to realize. This realization shall really be brought about through growth—learning to live positively.

When enough groups, such as yours, have reached the point where they can emanate enough love and light, they can bring about the changes that they wish. So I say, love one another. Learn to understand one another. Learn to grow together, each lending a helping hand to the other. Each rejoicing in the success of the other, knowing full well when one of you takes another step forward, he is also helping the others, because as you raise your own consciousness, you help to raise the consciousness all about you. The race consciousness has been improved.

And now my friends, I must leave you, but before I do I will bless each one of you individually. Our love and our blessings rest with you.

Peace, my friends, be with you.

Peace, Peace, Peace. ♣
