

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Copyright © 2012 Clyde Trepanier

February 8, 1960

Teacher: Peace be with you, beloved ones. It is my privilege to be the one to speak with you tonight. I hope that what I have to say shall reach the point of contact within your hearts. Beloved ones, each of you have come into this life for certain purposes, for certain accomplishments. Each has his task to perform, his mission, so to speak, yet each has also come into this life with certain weaknesses, certain overcomings to be accomplished. None of you are without this, yet, each has his or her own overcoming to do. It is necessary for each individual to recognize these things and to put forth the effort that is necessary to accomplish that which is necessary. Nature provides each individual with the qualifications or the abilities to do these things. You have only to use them.

Man was created with the ability to overcome all things, but man must recognize within himself the ability which he has and then to use it. Each individual entity is also given by his creator an inner sense of recognition which will also give him the power to recognize, that he might follow the path that will lead him or her through the experiences that will develop within that which is needed for your growth, your understanding, for your evolvment. Man must cultivate these senses. He must learn to not be swayed by ego, by selfish desires, greed or lust. If man is to follow his true path, he must cast aside all of these things and learn to recognize that still voice within him which guides him ever on the path of life. The narrow path of life that will bring him Peace and understanding. Too often, my friends, the small voice speaks within you and is not heard. Fear, ego and numerous other things drown the voice and it is not heard, and too often is it ignored.

Learn, my friends, to go with life, to move in harmony with life itself, with nature, as you call it. Bring yourself into tune with this great vast universal sea of life that you call nature. See the beauty in it, admire it, develop in your hearts a sense of gratitude. Give thanks for that which you have. Use it to the best advantage. Use it to glorify creation and your creator that it might grow and multiply. Never condemn, but always be grateful. This, my friends, is a universal law that never fails. Earth man carries very little gratitude in his heart, so, you see, he faces many problems from the lack of this.

Now, my friends, I leave you by placing my blessings and my love in the hearts of each of you. May you rest in the Peace and light of the infinite one always.

My Peace to you, my friends.

Goodnight. ✨