

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Oxal: Greetings in the Light, my friends. I am Oxal.

It is my pleasure to speak with those of you here tonight whom I have not heretofore spoken with. I shall attempt to be brief and to the point, for I know that your hour is getting late and some of you are anxious to return to your homes.

As we observe from our vantage point here in space, we see great events shaping up for the very near future for your planet and its peoples. The karmic debts of your civilization are being paid and there is much to come. There are going to be times, in the very near future, when strong souls shall be needed to survive. And we urge each of you most sincerely, to strengthen yourselves mentally, physically, and spiritually, so that you might be able to be of greater service to your brother man, who is less fortunate in bringing about his own development. Each of you, here tonight, have great potentiality in this direction, otherwise you would not be here. Each of you have gained enough understanding that if you will truly make the decision from the heart you can, and will, make great strides forward and your accomplishments in the way of service to your humanity, can be great.

As we have mentioned many times before, your people have been, and are being, awakened to a realization that they must make a choice. There are two ways to go. The choice is up to you. Whether you will take the path of the carnal way or the path of service to mankind. Realizing that as you serve the least of these so do you serve your creator. For he dwells within all man. He merely expresses greater things through some and this is because those of lesser understanding have not yet learned how to release him and let him come forth in their beings. And you, my friends, can, if you will, let him come forth in a much greater capacity. And the greater capacity in which you allow him to express through you, the greater you will find will be your joy and peace. He will express as you will allow him to. Through your own thoughts and deeds and desires, and the greatest of these being the desire and the will to serve.

The choice, beloved ones, is yours to make. Make it as you will and receive it accordingly. We, of the Otavana, are here to help you and the greater your choice and effort the more we can help you by guiding you, directing you, and serving you. We are guiding many, through paths that they know not why they are treading. They go about their way, not knowing why they do certain things, yet doing them because they have a desire and a will to serve.

Our mission is not one that we particularly desire. We do not particularly like having to guide and influence people into a path which is so apparently right. But we have come to serve and we shall serve to our greatest capacity. And hope we can influence many of your people to serve in their greatest capacity.

I must leave you now, my friends. We, the Sons of Adoni, extend unto you our love, our peace, and our blessings. I am Oxal. ♣
