Teacher: Greetings, Children of the Light.

I use this term of greeting because each of you here tonight is walking in the light, to your fullest ability. Continue to do this, my friends, and let your light ever increase, that you might walk ever in a brighter and more beautiful light.

Tonight, beloved ones, we are going to attempt to create for each of you a greater light, that you might be helped as you go forth into your daily living. We have with us tonight, a being who has been with you before, and each of you have with you your own teacher or wisdom. This ceremony we have performed for you here at Center R before, and we were happy to note that most of you receive much good. So, beloved ones, relax, let go. Open your hearts and your minds, and let this energy flow through your being. Receive as you will. As I speak, this is being done.

Your planet stands in great need of light at this time, but a great period of darkness must pass before the full impact of his light will be felt by planet Earth. But the time draws nigh when this great light shall permeate planet Earth, and as is stated in your religious histories, a new heaven and a new earth shall appear. This is a literal statement. You shall truly have a new heaven and a new earth. Even man himself will be renewed. Man of Earth will not be the same. He shall be a being of much higher intelligence, a much more highly refined physical body structure. All of his senses shall become active. He shall know himself as he really is.

As Earth man stands today, more than one third of his senses are inactive, and his brain is more than ninety percent inactive. The consciousness of Earth man has been such that he has not made use of the faculties he possesses. Man must extend his consciousness, he must expand it ever outward, for as his consciousness increases, so shall his abilities to use the faculties which he possesses. Reach out, ever outward, for new and higher understanding.

Some of the great teachers who have come to your planet have spent great efforts in trying to awaken your people to new truths. But these teachers, by those who believed, were worshipped as gods, which they were not, and those who disbelieved, attempted to destroy them. These great teachers demonstrated many things to your people, and they did not declare them as miracles, as is recorded in your histories. They attempted to convey to these people that they too, had these powers within them. That they were but to develop them. But these powers can only be known through hard and diligent searching, through attempting to reach out and grasp understanding.

One of your great teachers is quoted as saying, "Where two or more are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of you." To most of your people, those are empty words, but I say to you, my friends, even tonight he has stood among you, as have others. These are not miracles, these are perfectly normal functions. The only reason you have not seen them, is because some of your normal faculties are not functioning, Beloved children, open your eyes, gaze into the heavens, and search for the truth that lies there. Each of you has full access to all knowledge, and true knowledge and understanding will be found in no other way than going within, making that contact with universal wisdom or mind, the storehouse of: all that is, all that ever was, or ever will be. For nothing is new. It is all there, and it is yours to have. Search it out, beloved ones, and claim that which is rightfully yours. For ye, my friends, are true sons of creation. Ye are creators in your own right. Claim that which is yours.

I hope that each of you tonight has received much good from the light that you were given, for each of you has been surrounded the entire time I have been speaking, in a field of universal energy, cosmic energy, that contains the life saving essence of the universe.

May the Peace, the love, and the understanding of the infinite one rest in the hearts of each of you.

Go in Peace, my friends, I leave. ✿
