(Chants)

Special: Peace be with thee, beloved ones and greetings in the light and love of understanding.

There are those with whom you are concerned tonight, so I would suggest that for a moment we should devote our thoughts and efforts to these. Let us call upon the Anointed One, the One who is concerned primarily with you people of Earth, the One known to you as Jesus the Christ. The name Jesus means Savior, Christ implying the Anointed One. He who manifested in the flesh to show the way to those of you of Earth through purity and love.

As he stated during his ministry upon your planet, that where two or more of you were met in combined purpose and thought, there would he be among you. The Christ Love will always appear under these circumstances, so let us call upon him and ask that he might direct his angels to take charge over these and to direct them through his power, his love, his wisdom, to enfold them in his arms and let his great love pour forth upon them, bringing to them peace, love and understanding. That through this they may be made whole of mind and body for in his love only peace can permeate.

In this consciousness we rejoice and give thanks that it is so. So be it.

Peace, Peace, Peace.

Beloved ones, I perceive that there are some questions upon your minds. I shall take a few moments and attempt to clarify some of these for you if I can. You may proceed.

Questioner: Passing on of loved one explained.

Special: These things must not sadden us for this is a normal procedure. Death as you call it is as normal as is birth and as necessary. It is not a sad event. You rejoice at birth, yet at death, as you call it, which is nothing more than another birth. For as you are born into this life you also die from another, so to speak. There is no such thing as death as you know it. The concern for these is much too great.

Questioner: Explanation of Holy Breath.

Special: Do you understand the Triune of God? There are, so to speak, three aspects of God. I can see where a great deal of confusion arises among your people in this respect. For your scriptures are not clear on this matter and neither are the teachings of your religions. I'm wondering just how to present this to you that you might conceive it. Perhaps I might begin by saying that in the beginning there was only thought from mind. Universal Mind, or God, and as God breathed forth, the Mother God took form as the two breathed forth in unison, the third was born. The one and only Son, the Christ, or Love. This is the three aspects of God. God the power. God the wisdom and intelligence, and God Love—which is the Christ. Without the Son we would not have anything else. For this is what permeates the universe and keeps it going. As the three breathed forth together, the seven spirits stood before the throne. These are the creative spirits that created Man and all that is. The seven creations—the Cherubim, the angels, ectoplasm, the Earth, the plant, the beast, the Man. I left out the realm of soul, but these are the seven creations of the universe.

And so it was that Man was created. The Cherubim and the angel fell not. Only Man, the plant, the beast, the Earth. But the three aspects of God which is wisdom, intelligence and the Son of God is Love. What you call the Holy Spirit, the Holy Ghost, the Holy Breath is the Mother God. Now a person can be endowed with any one aspect of God and yet be completely oblivious of the other two. This you find throughout your civilization. Those who are endowed with power or with intelligence or with love can have no concept of the other. But to reach perfection, one must be endowed with all three.

In order to gain these aspects, first one must prepare themselves, as did the Master through purification. John the Baptist represented purification. He was Man in his purest.

This was his mission, to demonstrate purity. When Jesus had mastered this and mastered the Universal Love, then he was baptized in the river and the Holy Breath descended upon him. But these two things are necessary before one can receive the baptism of the Holy Breath. Baptism is something that is very much misunderstood by your people. They make a great ado over baptism. Baptizing their infants, but you cannot baptize one until they are ready to be baptized. Baptizing a child means nothing. For until that child had grown to maturity and prepared himself, the baptism cannot be given. How can one accept something that they know not of. One cannot receive the baptism of the Holy Breath until one is prepared for such. Now there are many who have revelations, good experiences, and think that they have had the baptism of the Holy Breath. But when one has had a true baptism of the Holy Breath you will not see the characteristics you find in many of these, that of condemnation, jealousy and greed. There are degrees of revelations that one can have. What one does with these is up to him or her. One might have a spiritual awakening or what you call a conversion, but one must be careful that they do not let this inflate their ego and assume that they are an anointed one. This is only a beginning to an end. These are opportunities by which one can take an advantage and grow more rapidly if they so desire. But a conversion is not a baptism. When this happens in its entirety a very, very great change will take place. Ones understanding may improve to a great extent. Many of these who have had these Light experiences will grow from that into a complete baptism. This will depend on them, on what they do with what they have and many, as you know, have fallen by the wayside. They have not measured up to what is required of them. It is a beginning. For when one has a complete baptism of the Holy Breath, they will be able to demonstrate healing and many of the things that your Master Jesus demonstrated. But it takes them time to grow in wisdom and understanding and until they have this wisdom the power of God is not available to them because when one has the power he must have the wisdom and love that goes with it, otherwise he would misuse this power. That is why so many of the secrets, so many of the things of the spiritual nature is secret and is not passed on until one is capable of understanding and using it. One must master these aspects of purity and love and wisdom before the power is received. Your question takes considerable time to cover and we have tonight merely brushed the surface. These things are covered well in "The Aquarian Gospel." Yes, quite well. This is a book that I would recommend to anyone. For it is a true record of the life of the Master. Although it is very condensed, yet if one studies and prays over it, it reveals much.

Questioner: Regarding young people of today, born in the last thirty years.

Special: As you know many of your young people today are having a difficult time. Their elders have failed them. They have left them with no principles. Your civilization has been rotting, so to speak. Those who have been incarnating into your civilization for the past thirty years are of a different breed. They have watched their elders and they have found little to guide them in the path of love and security. It has been difficult for them to understand. They are told one thing but they see the opposite happening among those who are supposed to be the way-showers for them.

It has come to a point where they are rebelling against the way of life that has been shown to them. They have attempted to find other ways. Some have not found the right way and some have. It is difficult to expect from these a generation that will be nearer perfect than have been the last few. It will take time for these to find themselves. In reality this is what they are trying to do. I believe that by and large most of your younger generation of today will find their way and out of them will come a new and better order.

Now, my beloved friends, I must leave you. May the joy and the Peace and the love of all the Anointed Ones be invoked upon you now. May each of you receive their blessings and may they go with you on your journey through life. ☸
