Hatton: I greet you my beloved friends, in the love and light of the infinite creator. I am Hatton.

I am speaking to you from a craft that is within your atmosphere. We have at this moment, attuned our Iconiscan to your location. And through this instrument we are able to observe you, as though we were but a few feet, in your measurement, from you. This may be somewhat difficult for some or you to comprehend. But when the day arrives, that we are able to share with you our sciences, you will see many things that will amaze you much more than will this device.

Beloved friends, you are living today in times of great change, much greater than you think or realize. These changes are coming about with an ever increasing rapidity. And you, too, beloved friends, shall experience great changes within yourselves. Each of you here on this night, are here because you are seeking. You are seeking to know the truth. Therefore you can expect great changes, and you can expect to know the truth. Knowing the truth, shall bring great changes within you. For every step you take on the path to truth, brings change. Therefore, let us be open and receptive, that we may learn. I do not imply by this, that you must except everything as truth. But, if we are to gain knowledge, wisdom and truth we must forever have an open mind. For when one closes the mind and decides within himself that he has all truth, he is dead, so to speak. For truth moves ever onward and forward. I know not where it ends. I know not what the ultimate in truth is.

I have traveled great areas of space, have found life in every corner, but I have not the ultimate. You see, we too, are searching, are seeking for higher truth. We are no different than you. We simply, shall we say, are a step or two in advance. And we are reaching back, attempting to help our brothers, as are those that are ahead of us, reaching back to help us. For, you see, my friends, that is the way that we serve. All creation moves in this manner, each attempting to serve his brother, for when I have served my brother, I too, have been served. This, my friends, is a good thing to remember. In order to receive, we must give, and this law applies in everything we do, for if we have great truth and understanding, and use it only for ourselves, it shall gain us naught.

This, my friends, is happening day-by-day, upon planet Earth, and it is things of this nature, that bring the chaos that you find among your people.

As those of you who are seeking to know truth reach higher and higher, you must be ready to have brought to you many things that may have been, or may be contrary to some of the things that you have known as truth. These things are going to come to Earth people, perhaps a great deal more rapidly than you realize for the time is short.

You are going to find yourselves tested in many ways. I mean by this you will have challenges to meet, and some of these challenges might be quite shaking to you. So I would suggest, that much time be spent in prayer and meditation, preparing yourself for the things that are to come, preparing yourself to serve. For in the days that lie in the not too far distant, those of you who are children of the light, shall have opportunities to do great service to your fellow man. The need will be much greater than you realize.

Planet Earth must pass through some great changes in order to be cleansed, to be balanced when she passes into the next dimension in space.

We, of the Confederation, are going to see to it that this great planet is not lost as was another a few years past. We shall not interfere in the evolution of Earth man unless it is necessary. But, if it becomes necessary, we shall and will, for we have at this moment, over four million craft standing by for any emergency. So, you see, my friends, we are prepared.

Now, my friends, I must leave this instrument. It has been my pleasure, and my joy to have spoken with you. May each of you reach great heights in your search for truth. And may each of you, when your challenge comes, meet it in such a way, that it will bring you great wisdom, great love and great understanding.

Odina, my friends, Odina, Vasu, Borragus. I am Hatton.
