Yaum: Good evening to you, my friends, I am Yaum.

It is my privilege to come among you again. I wish to extend my greetings and my most sincere love to each of you.

Questioner: We're glad that you found us in our new house.

Yaum: Well, it did not seem to be much of a problem.

Questioner: We hope that the Father will help us to keep the love and light growing in this house.

Yaum: We are sure that it will grow and since this is your first meeting in your new abode I thought that it would be nice to drop in on you and perhaps we could have a little chat. It has been a long time since we have all been together but now that you are getting permanently settled you will be able to proceed with your regular gatherings, continue on your regular basis.

Questioner: We're glad to know that the channel can relax now and have a good meditation. He has been so tired from the moving.

Yaum: Oh yes, he will be able to carry on. As one of your saying goes, "The old gray mare isn't what she used to be physically." But he thinks he is. Well, that is half of the battle. When he starts to think that he isn't, that would be worse.

Questioner: Can you tell us anything about our move to this area?

Yaum: You had some direction and guidance, more than perhaps you realized and perhaps as time goes on you will see the benefits. There are many things involved in your complicated system that has to be taken into consideration. So perhaps, more than you know, things turned out rightly. It takes a little time to adjust, but you will adjust.

Questioner: We were not aware of much guidance.

Yaum: You weren't?

Questioner: What have you been doing?

Yaum: The usual.

Questioner: I assume that moving is not a problem to you?

Yaum: No, because I do not have many worldly possessions so I do not have much to move when I do. I am by myself, I do not have a family to be concerned about so I am a free agent, you might say.

Questioner: Are events moving along rapidly toward the New Age?

Yaum: Yes, everything is going along according to schedule. The earthquake in Hawaii is just one of the activities that are continually taking place upon your planet. The planet is in a constant state of change and at certain times greater changes take place quickly, so to speak, and some of those that will cause major changes have not yet occurred.

Yes, the Government is gradually bringing out the fact that you have visitors from outer space. But I do not think they are going to recognize the friendly ones, only the unfriendly ones. I do not think that even they realize that many of these do not come from outer space. However, it is known by a few but not generally known. Your government has attempted to produce an interplanetary vehicle but as of now they have not been able to do so.

I do not think that the true source of the authority to release this knowledge will be brought to light. It would be good if it could be but the group that is the true source and that is back of this release are too powerful. And those who are in the government have too much fear to expose them.

Questioner: Are astrologers generally aware of visitors from other planets and of the beginning of the New Age?

Yaum: Yes, I would say so.

Questioner: Is the new sun approaching our system?

Yaum: Oh yes, it is on its way but still a long way off. It has already been seen but your scientists are not sure what it is. One of your astronauts sighted it on the last trip to the moon and one of them mentioned that it could be a sun. It will not take on its brilliancy until it enters your solar system. Then is when your whole solar system will shift and you will have a new magnetic center of your system. With the influence of the two suns there will be a shift of the planets and other bodies into a new position because the magnetic field will change as everything actually rotates around the magnetic center of your solar system.

Questioner: Is there a magnetic barrier that our people will have to go through to get to another planet?

Yaum: No, there is no magnetic barrier there but you cannot go to another planet from Earth because you cannot go in the physical. And when you go you will not even go in your astral body, you will go only in your spirit. You can go in the astral body if you go in a spaceship and are landed on a planet with the same atmosphere, gravity, etc. of planet Earth. The astral beings that are in the astral realm of your planet cannot leave and go to another planet anymore than you can in the physical. They are earthbound, but the spirit body can go anywhere. If you were to be taken to another planet you would have to leave your astral and your physical here, and in that state you do not even have to have a spacecraft.

Questioner: We were told that in a conventional type craft and attire, our people would be dead upon arrival upon another planet. Is this true?

Yaum: Not altogether. If you had a spacecraft that was built here on Earth and carrying this atmosphere, vibration, gravity, etc., you could go anywhere in space but you would not be able to leave the craft on Mars or Venus because you could not survive in that atmosphere. Your craft that went to the moon could not survive in outer space as they do not maintain any gravity and fields of Earth vibration. But craft properly built can repel meteorites, etc., can attune to certain vibrations, magnetic fields, etc., rate of vibration and mode of motion of other planets that they visit, directed by mind intelligence's and as far as time and speed are concerned, there is practically no time involved. After they make the adjustment it is only a matter of minutes until they are there.

Questioner: Can the instrument be helped to feel better when he is used in the present manner?

Yaum: Yes, it does help him some but we cannot do everything for people.

They have to do some things for themselves, but we do help. He is like most Earth people, he doesn't take too seriously the importance of the proper care of the physical.

Questioner: Can you give us any suggestions about how to participate in this Holy Season that is approaching?

Yaum: Of course, this is an individual thing, as to what you can get out of or accomplish during this season. You all know, by and large, it is a big farce as it is commercialized to a point of disgust, you might say sometimes. But there are those who truly know the meaning of what you call Christmas, the symbology back of it, who meditate upon the meaning of it. It is a time to do good, to do good for others, but it has become a time of receiving for most of your people instead of giving. One should give where it is needed, one should do good for others. If one really is sincere about it by meditating upon it they can be guided to do the right thing. But despite the commercialism, there is some goodwill and love generated. People come together more and they try to be more friendly because it is the custom to do this, but even some of this is just on the surface.

But those who are really sincere and who really want to know and understand the true meaning, it would be a good time to meditate upon the real meaning and to let it sink into their being. By doing this you will help to raise your own consciousness. Visualize the Christ Child being born in your heart which is actually the symbol of this, but this is not known by many people, that the Christ Child must be born in the heart of each of us. This has to happen before one can really grow spiritually. True love has to be sparked in your own heart and this is what I mean by meditating upon the true symbology of Christmas. I'm sure that you all know what I mean as it has been spoken of many times.

Questioner: Can one, of necessity, be physically and mentally so involved in material events that they couldn't attend the night classes?

Yaum: No, not necessarily, because you can be taken in your sleep without remembering about it.

Questioner: One of us recalls a different type of experience of a "sleep dream" where forty or fifty people were present. Two members of our group were giving a beautiful communion service and you came to join us. You, Yaum, looked very young. It was a very beautiful and uplifting experience for everyone. Will you comment on this?

Yaum: I can verify your dream. Many of these things take place nowadays and each of these gatherings has a certain purpose and brings a certain benefit to those who are there, along with added knowledge that will be useful to them in the coming times. That is really the purpose of these meetings, to prepare those who are working in the Light and are sincere in their work for the coming times so that they will be prepared to carry out their work then. Nothing of this type is done without purpose as we do not do things just for the idea of doing it. This is not to say that we do not have our relaxation times and our times of enjoyment, but things of this type are always done for a purpose. There will be many more of these gatherings.

Few realize their own potential, realize who and what they are and of course not being able to associate your past with the present, many things may happen that you do not understand and why they happen. But practically everything that does happen is for your benefit and good, whether it be seemingly a beneficial, pleasant experience or an unpleasant experience. For an unpleasant experience is very often a great lesson that is necessary for you to have in order to bring about your growth, for experience is the only teacher by which you will truly learn. It is one thing to intellectually know it without really knowing it. It is like reading the instructions to do a certain work but until you actually do it, you do not know for sure.

Questioner: If we could meet you in the physical then we would more truly know, too!

Yaum: There are certain things that you have to take on faith. We will meet someday perhaps, but not in the physical.

Questioner: Is Phillip still in this area?

Yaum: So far as I know. I am sure that he will return to speak with you.

Now, my friends, it is time for me to depart. It has been my pleasure to come among you and we all of our Teachers that speak to you extend their love and their blessings upon each of you and upon your new abode. Also, upon all of those who helped to make it possible. They have met their tests.

So we extend special blessings upon this abode tonight and each one of you here have had a special blessing. As I leave I extend my own blessings and love and may the vibrations of this Center grow ever higher and higher, that each of you may receive more and more benefit from your gatherings.

Peace, my friends, peace, peace. ☸
