

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Copyright © 2012 Clyde Trepanier

August 18, 1960

Teacher: May the peace of the infinite one surround thee, oh beloved children.

What seekest thee, oh beloved children. In thy search seek ye for Peace? Then first make peace with yourself. First you must have peace with yourself, and then peace shall surround thee. Seek ye understanding? Then seek to understand your own being, for to have true understanding you must understand your own being. Seek ye Wisdom? Then practice wisdom in all things that you do for anything which thou searches for must be found first within thyself. This realization must come to each of you, if you are to gain height in truth.

You are, my friends, what you can conceive of being. There are no limitations placed upon your consciousness, so attempt to be the highest that you can conceive of. Raise your sights and as you grow in time, in truth, in understanding, your concepts shall ever widen and take continually new horizons. Horizons which are now far beyond any concept that you could conceive of.

Oh beloved children, and you are children in consciousness, raise your sights to new heights and let the glory of creation flow to you. You shall be grasping new truths that will widen your understanding. Take advantage of all the opportunities that come to you. Use them, and carry them into your everyday life. For these truths avail you but little, unless you live them. You see, my beloved children the weakness for many generations of Earth man has been that he speaks a great deal of higher truths, but he practices them not.

He concedes that man must live thus and so, but his practices are of the opposite.

So, beloved ones, unless you live your truth, you may as well not know it. How far will you go in living the truth you know. Ask yourself daily, "How far am I willing to go? Do I truly love my brother man. Would I be willing to sacrifice for him. Would I lay down my life for my fellow man? Would I take my brother in and shelter him and feed him and clothe him, if need be?" Take stock of yourself, beloved ones, and see how far you are willing to go in living the truth that you know. Know thyself, oh man, know thyself. May each of you, as you do this, come into a realization of what you truly are, and then start from there and raise your sights, and see how rapidly you grow in love and understanding. Peace, love and understanding will grow in the hearts of each of you, if you will but allow it.

I leave you with these things to think about and my Peace and understanding I leave with you.

Blessings, my friends, blessings. ✿