

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Copyright © 2012 Clyde Trepanier

March 3, 1980

Teacher: You have had much concern as to the working out of your problems here and whether or not you were making the progress that you should be making. But I say unto you, my children, be not anxious for all shall come together in due time.

You are going to find certain individuals coming in contact with you in the near future who will have information and abilities that will be very useful in the future when your project is well in motion.

There have been many techniques brought to your people in the past, techniques of healing, techniques of farming or production of food, scientific and mechanical techniques. Although these were not successful in their original form, yet all of that information is still here upon the planet. There are certain associates of these individuals who have this knowledge and will again be able to bring it forth when the time is right. You shall find that through these individuals, knowhow will come to you. Some of these individuals may even become a part of your project. I am sure they will.

Here they will be able to use these techniques and you will have your healers, and advisers in the fields in which you are not so familiar. This can develop into a very efficient and harmonious group of individuals, but it will take some effort.

It will take personal leadership, strong leadership and you, my children, have within you the ability to supply this leadership and to draw unto you those with whom you can work in harmony in your governing group. With the efforts that you are able to put forth, your knowledge, your understanding, your power of visualization, and your determination to use positive thinking, you will make a stronger leader and a better leader and a loved leader. A leader must develop love that he can give to those about him and he must be able to give this love in abundance but in the right way and by so doing you will draw from those about you their love and their respect for you.

So my children, you really have much to look forward to, although it will require much work, much sacrifice and effort upon your part. Yet I think you are going to find it rewarding and I think you will find that it will bring you a peace of mind that you have not yet experienced.

So go forth in your work with joy and thanksgiving, knowing that you are doing what you must do and that what you are doing is for the good and benefit of your fellow man.

Expect nothing in return and you will receive much. It is not he who expects great returns from his efforts that finds the joy and peace. But it is he who serves for the love of serving with no thought of self, with never a thought of reward or praise. It is he that will really find the peace and joy that is known only to those who serve in this manner.

May you go forth in your efforts and find great success. Trust that guidance within you that will lead you and guide you in the right direction in all of your decisions and your choices.

The Great Ones watch over all of those who serve in this manner and are aware of their efforts and their attitudes. They are aided by them in any way that they can possibly do so.

Go in peace, walk in peace. Peace, peace, peace. ☸