Oxal: Greetings in the light, my friends. I am Oxal.

Once more I come to speak with you and to share with you some of our knowledge and understanding.

First, I should like to extend a welcome to our old friend here from the city of Detroit. I should like to say that we have not forgotten you folks in Detroit. We are still aware of your activities. We have been pleased with your progress and in the service that you have performed and the dedication which you have displayed. We wish to assure you that you have not gone unnoticed by us and we have given you aid whenever and where ever we could. Many times you were not aware of this. Many times you have been aware that you were receiving aid but you knew not from whence it came. But be assured that we have watched over you from the beginning when you made your choice, as we pledged we would, and our pledge still holds good to all who are serving in the light.

But your service has only begun and this is true for all of you for there is much to be done in your civilization and for your people. There is great need among your people and some of you are going to play a part in bringing about awakenings and realizations of certain individuals, for there are many at this time who need to be awakened to their service, to that mission for which they came. And many, who are in the service today, will play a part in bringing this about as you have been told, this may require for some individuals to move about somewhat, but the time has come when this is necessary and it is hoped by those in charge of these missions that all will respond as was intended.

You are entering, as you know, into a time when great activity is and will be occurring upon the surface of your planet. Great turmoil will be seen and it will be necessary for those of you who have knowledge of these things, who have been taught to remain true and steadfast, true to your cause, true to your calling. It may seem at times that you are being put upon, that perhaps there may be a feeling of non-appreciation or non-recognition. But your reward will not be in the carnal but in the spiritual. The carnal rewards are of little value and are short lived. The only value you can place upon the carnal things is their value of use to the service of mankind.

But the things of spirit are eternal and the joy, the peace that you shall reap in this manner will be everlasting and shall not rust away. Therefore it will behoove all of you to be strong of heart, to place your values in proper perspective. Train yourself to recognize true value, for when you lay aside the carnal things they have no more value to you. But the treasures that you have laid for yourself in the spiritual realms remain with you throughout eternity. Therefore when you serve, serve to your fullest capacity, that you might receive in proportion.

For the law of the universe is such that you cannot receive more than you give. So continually plant the seeds of love and joy, the seeds of desire. Not the desire as carnal man thinks of it, but the desire to serve all creation, to put yourself in harmony with all creation. You see, my friends, the great turmoil that is arising and has been arising upon your planet is nothing more or less than man's inharmony with nature or God and his laws. Man, instead of cooperating and attuning himself in harmony with the laws of his creator, has put himself in opposition to these laws. He has violated these laws in every way possible. Therefore the law reacts and man destroys himself. Nothing more, nothing less.

So, my friends, let us put ourselves in complete harmony with all creation, knowing that we are a part of it and it is a part of us and therefore there can be only harmony from us, by attuning ourselves, cooperating with the law, and the law will cooperate and attune itself with us and we will move forward in peace, in joy, in harmony. We shall prosper, we shall have no needs. There will be no illness. There will be only harmony.

I must leave you now my friends and I leave you by extending to you love, the peace, and the understanding of my people.

I am Oxal. ✿
