Athens: Greetings to you there at Center R. Athens here.

We have something a little different for you tonight. We have with us here aboard the Otavana, a visitor from the planet Venus and he has consented to say a few words to you. I present to you Mong Ling, a great Master from the planet Venus.

Mong Ling: My greetings and my love to you there at Center R, as I understand you are designated by the Federation. I greet you in love, in peace and in understanding. It is my privilege to be given this opportunity to speak with you.

We, of the planet Venus, have a great interest in your planet for most of us here have at one time lived and incarnated upon your beautiful planet Earth. There are many upon our planet who are working with Earth people in attempting to help them grow in love and in understanding so that they, too, might advance to our planet. There are many who have great interest in certain ones upon your planet, for there are many who have reached the state in evolution where they have been able to advance from planet Earth to planet Venus but their other polarity is still fighting the battle of self upon planet Earth. They are most anxious that they might join together upon our planet and progress together further upon the ladder of evolution.

It is sad that people cannot see and follow a path that is so obvious. It is unfortunate that man allows himself to become blinded by the carnal manifestations, for these are not things of real value, they are only temporary creations and they will disintegrate, melt away and be no more. This is happening before your very eyes, day-by-day, yet your people do not recognize it. They see the carnal things come and go, they find themselves in plenty and suddenly it is taken away and they find themselves in want and they seem to be helpless against these things. And when they are in want they cry out in anguish, wondering why it has been taken away. The reason it is taken away is because it is not a stable energy. Only that energy which comes from Spirit is lasting in its creations. Matter created from spiritual energy is much more enduring than that created by mind energy. And there is a difference my friends, he who lives by the mind and by the mind only, will not endure. He who combines the mind energy with spiritual energy will endure. This is building upon the rock and the storms will not wash it away.

So, I say to you Earth people, build your treasures in the spiritual world, on the spiritual laws, the law of loving one another, of serving one another with no thought of self.

Let peace reign supreme in your life. Let not your emotions rise at the actions and words of others but rather say to them, "Peace be with you." The word peace in itself is a powerful word and should be used often in your thoughts and in your words.

There is a great revolution taking place among your people today. There has been a great influx into your civilization of those souls from the Lemurian and the Atlantean civilizations and many of these are great minds. They have great scientific potential and some of them, many of them, will develop into minds that will combine the scientific with the spiritual. Not all will have these attributes, but many will. And a new movement will arise and is arising at this moment in your civilization that is going to remove some of your groups that have ruled your civilization for many years in corruption—"ism's" and organizations who have used the people for their own advantage to gain power and wealth. Many of these young minds will not accept these situations, they see through them. They are not going to be misled by these "self" people who would take advantage of them for their own selfish interests. And many of your most respected professions are going to go through a great house cleaning, for the younger generations coming into these organizations are not going to go with them in their corruptness.

But it is not going to be easy. A great war will rage between these factions and you will find the turmoil will increase and there will be rumor upon rumor and it will be difficult for you to know what to believe. So each must make his own decision as to which path he will take. So choose well, my friends, think well upon any decisions you make. Take them well within and meditate upon them that you might be led to do the things that would be beneficial to your fellow man and your civilization. You are going to be faced with many decisions in the near future, for as you know, many situations are going to arise as a result of the errors of your civilization and you will be called upon to make many choices. So I say to you, my friends, decide in your own mind what is right and stand upon the right. Stand forth for what you know to be right and good. It is better to lose one's life in standing forth for right than it is to give in to the negative and to join with inferior motivations in order to have safety for your own person.

There are many of us upon the planet Venus who are watching your planet very closely and are visiting it often and we are trying in every way to help all of those who are seeking the right, who are trying to walk in the light. So, my friends, it behooves all of you to purify your minds, your bodies and your souls as rapidly as you can, to eliminate from your consciousness all greed, hate, lust and desire of the lower self. And the more you eliminate these things from your consciousness the more those who are trying to help you can get through and bring help to you.

It has been my pleasure to have this opportunity to speak to you. I wish to extend to each of you my love and my blessings and some day may we all meet upon the planet Venus. I leave with you my very sincere blessings, my love and my understanding.

I go.

Athens here. It has been our pleasure to introduce this very esteemed guest of ours tonight to you and to have this opportunity to allow him to speak to you. We hope that you have enjoyed his little talk.

We leave you in love and light. ✿
