Zalhem: Greetings to you, my beloved children, I am Zalhem.

It is good to again come among you. I hope I shall be of some help to you.

The Hierarchy of your planet is working diligently, directing energies to your planet that will help to bring about the time and conditions which will enable this Great Master, whom you have named Jesus, to again return to your planet and establish the new principles that will dominate the New Age. He stands ready to again walk among you whenever the conditions for his return have been met. The exact time is not known. I doubt that it is even known to him, for it will depend largely upon the conditions that are necessary for his return.

Many of his disciples and workers are working upon your planet at this time, trying to help to bring about these conditions which are growing and are becoming apparent upon your planet today, although when you look only at the surface it is difficult to see. But if you look closely you will see that there are many, many people upon planet Earth today who are beginning to realize the necessity of right relationships among men, of the necessity to think in terms of what is good for all. Also the necessity of laying aside the idea of self-gain, of getting that which is only good for yourself, or your group, or your nations, or whatever. Man is beginning to realize the necessity of global thinking, the necessity to bring all mankind together in these efforts, regardless of race, nationality or religion. When these criterions are met to a certain degree, He will come forth and a new type of religion will be established.

There will be disappointments among many, for many will expect special attention because of their religions. The Christians may think that He is coming only for the Christians. Some of the Buddhists may think that this great Avatar will come mostly for their benefit. The Jewish race, over many centuries, have been looking for their Avatar to come to them to save their race. But they will have to come to the realization that this Avatar or Savior, or whatever you wish to call him, comes for all mankind, to bring all mankind together as one. This must be the realization of all.

He is not going to be impressed by your big temples with all of their gold and their pomp. He is not going to be impressed with all of the ceremonies and the finery of dress of the Priesthood. These things will be of no importance to him. The greatest desire he will have will be to bring people together, to establish a relationship between people of light, of love, a right relationship between all mankind. And a realization that all man, regardless of race, color or creed, are all sons and daughters of this great Universal Mind that you call God.

These must be the things that are brought to the consciousness of man. He must have concern for his brother man, a desire to lift him up, to feed him, to educate him, to teach him so that all might enter into the Kingdom. Man must have a new understanding of love and of light. A new understanding of the things that the Avatars of the past have brought to planet Earth. There can be no separation between the religions.

The Buddha and the Christ both brought a message to planet Earth. Each did the work that he was asked to do and was qualified to do. The great Lord Buddha brought to planet Earth, light. He was the Light Bearer, and he brought teachings of light, teachings of right relationships between mankind and also many great truths.

The Christ, for whom he helped prepare the way, brought the message of love, which he demonstrated and presented at the beginning of your present age. Now He is waiting to return, to finish that mission that He started more than two thousand years ago. He and the Lord Buddha are working hand-in-hand in bringing about the preparation for His return the second time. He will be the only one who has returned the second time. The reason for that, is that His mission is such, that it could not be accomplished in one sojourn here. So it is necessary for Him now to come back at the end of this age and establish a true religion, one that will bring together the East and the West, and bring together all man as brothers.

Questioner: May I ask a question before you leave?

Zalhem: Yes.

Questioner: Is it possible, if the conditions are right, for Jesus to return before the catastrophes and prophecies of the Bible take place?

Zalhem: Most of these things will transpire before his return. They can transpire more rapidly or less rapidly, depending somewhat on mankind.

Most of these things are necessary for the cleansing of the earth and the removing of the elements that will not be conducive to the establishment of the New Age.

But the exact time of his coming is not known, even in the Hierarchy who has approximate knowledge, but not the exact knowledge. But they are not giving out even the approximate knowledge.

Now, my friends, I must leave you. I extend to each of you my most sincere blessings. May the peace, joy and the love of all the Great Ones be received by each of you now.

Go in peace, my friends, go in peace. My peace I leave with you. ☸
