Yaum: Greetings to you my friends. It gives me great pleasure to come into your household in this manner. I am honored that you welcome me and I would like to express my gratitude to you. You have a lovely household here and I am sure it is going to become a center of great light as you progress along your path. I could not resist this opportunity tonight knowing that the boy would be here. I have not had the opportunity to speak with you in a long time, and have not had the opportunity to visit you in your new abode. I hope I am not intruding by taking advantage of this.

Questioner: We are blessed to have you.

Yaum: I think it would be nice if we had a friendly little chat tonight. Do you have a subject you would like to discuss?

Questioner: I recently thought of you and the Brothers and it was like being one of you.

Yaum: When you think of us in this manner, we receive these thoughts. We may not be present with you at the time, but we still receive your thoughts and return our love to you. You, no doubt, pick up our return thoughts. It brings us into a special rapport, and those who are becoming more sensitive feel these things. It is a feeling, and this is one of our senses that is greatly overlooked by your people. A feeling of these things is becoming part of them in spirit.

When we have beautiful thoughts of each other, we join together in spirit, in a wonderful rapport, in wonderful feelings. It is a oneness which is difficult to describe. You have to feel it to appreciate it.

Questioner: We have tried to begin our preparation for the coming times, and I feel a protection and a light. I feel that if we move forward in faith we can store up the things that we will need, and there will be a protection so that we can do the spiritual work.

Yaum: This is true because you prepare with thought in mind for others, not just for yourself. Those who are preparing for these things in a selfish manner, I am afraid, are going to have some difficulties. For those who are building in the Light and doing these things with a purpose in mind, not only for yourselves but for what you may be able to do for someone else who is in need and has not had the opportunity or the wherewithal to do so will have protection.

You are governed by your created talents and resources. Man, himself, really does not have anything, only what he is allowed to have. The results will depend on how he uses the talents and resources that have been given him, which will determine the degree of help and protection that he will receive. There are many people today who realize this is the spiritual way, but in a carnal way your civilization is in trouble. Many have hoarded and accumulated, put away for their own use so that they will be safe. These people are going to run into trouble. All of you know what happens to carnal man when he panics, when he is hungry or starving. But he does not have to get into this state before the animal nature comes out. You see that about you today already developing, do you not? How much worse is it going to be when people are starving? You have had some panic already, but when the masses get hungry, people whom you consider to be stable and upright today will turn and become as animals, so to speak. Survival of the fittest, you see.

So you are doing right in doing what you are doing, because you have the right attitude and, this is most important. You have instructions as to how to share, and what the rules are. Your Master, Jesus, gave these to you in the Sermon on the Mount, and at other times. So, if these principles are followed with a sincere heart, you have really nothing to fear for yourselves. No great harm shall come to you in the spirit.

Another thing I would like to inject here is that man takes too seriously the importance of the physical body. Your physical temple might be destroyed or tortured, but if you stand firm in your faith, you will reap a great harvest in the end. As you know, in the past those who have tried to follow the Light, to walk in His footsteps, have suffered great persecution. Again these things are going to happen. Those forces that did those things in the past are still with you, but these things should not be of great concern. Your Master said "When these things happen, know that your salvation is near." So be joyful.

It is difficult to try to make these things acceptable in the sight of carnal man, because he has long thought in a carnal way. His thoughts are all relative to these things. It seems so often like there are contradictions here, but in reality there are not. It is necessary for all of you who are trying to follow the Light to do the best you can with what you have to do with. You will not be judged so much on how much you do as you will be on how you have done it. All men do not stand in the same position. It is going to be a matter of doing the best you can do from your reference point.

One man may have much more to do with, therefore he is expected to do a great deal more. Another may have very little to do with, but if he does all he can with what he has to do with, in the eyes of the Law he will be much greater than he who has much to do with and does very little. So where do we go from here?

Questioner: Can those in the higher realms help to keep Earth man from making mistakes?

Yaum: We cannot control what man does. Each of you is an individual and has the God given right to make your own decisions. Those in the higher realms cannot change this or would not wish to change it. It is not always possible to foresee what individuals will do. For you see even the angels have changed their minds, have fallen, have failed. Man is a little lower than the angels, so he is also going to fail, in many of his missions, but this does not condemn him.

We do not claim to be infallible either. We are still man, only working on various levels, and we have much growing to do. So we have our failures just as you have your failures. We do not succeed in everything that we attempt to do. We would like, in the work we are doing, to accomplish much more than we do at times, but we are working with other forces and working against other forces. The Earth and the Universe are made up of positive and negative forces, so sometimes they have a great deal to do with what happens too. There is a continual combating of the two forces and if this were not so we would not have the problems that we have today.

Questioner: We feel certain that our good friends have made the trip under guidance and that there was a purpose for them to be here, rather than for just a visit. It seems that you fellows "upstairs" must have some thoughts about this.

Yaum: I think that as time passes the developments will show themselves. Sometimes people do something because in their hearts they want to do it. When this happens, usually something will come from it, and I would expect something good.

Questioner: We Earth people are curious, you know, Yaum.

Yaum: I understand, but you see I, myself, feel a great gratitude for being able to participate although I am not responsible for it. I am not your guide, I am not guiding you. I am only one who is given an opportunity to come and speak with you. I am one of you, so I am anticipating too.

Questioner: What do you think of our bringing together a group of earnest seekers and letting them have the opportunity of meditating with us?

Yaum: I hope that all of those who come to join you will come not just to hear someone speak to them, but will come to join with all of you with love for each other and not just seeking the phenomena. Let them come because they really love you and want to join with you in prayer and meditation. If it is done in this spirit, the experiences will be greater.

Questioner: There is a great interest in healing right now for ourselves, and in getting others to accept these healings.

Yaum: Yes, there is great interest taking place in this among your people today. More and more people are realizing that they can develop the power of healing. It is like anything else you have to practice and work at it. It is just like playing a musical instrument, the more you practice, the more you try, the more proficient you become. You have already developed much of this power. I would suggest in your own case, you might try the laying on of hands. Sometimes this is much more effective, but it is not absolutely necessary. The power can flow, but it flows much quicker and much easier this way.

Questioner: Is it possible for the Teachers to give any advice concerning my health problem?

Yaum: They would suggest that you start to work on this problem, both yourself and your mate, through your healing techniques. Ask also for the help of Spirit power. Ask Spirit to help you in bringing their power into play through this they feel that the problem can be resolved. They would be willing to help you, but they need your cooperation.

Questioner: Are these Spirit Doctors?

Yaum: There are those in the Spirit world or unseen world who are doing this type of work, but in order to do for you, you have to ask and to cooperate with them.

In your meditation be very aware, both of you, for guidance, and you will receive guidance perhaps concerning things that need to be done on the physical plane as you go along. There are those who are doing these sort of things who would be glad to cooperate with you if they are asked. You must be sincere and grateful in your asking, and be responsive to the help when it comes to you.

Questioner: Can others receive this help?

Yaum: What I am saying here applies to any of you. You can get help from those on the other planes, but you must ask for it sincerely, believing that they are going to help you. You must make yourself available so that they can help you and get through to you, and help will be given. This takes concentration and effort on your part. If you are not willing to put forth effort, you cannot expect someone else to put forth the effort to do it all for you.

Questioner: I have a great longing to become closer and closer to Spirit and find it difficult to organize my thought-life to do this.

Yaum: This is a great longing for oneness with Creation. This is a desire that should be found in everyone. Sometimes it becomes so intense that we would like to throw everything else aside and become just Spirit. But we are not quite ready for this yet. We have other obligations, other things to finish in our mission, but this does not mean that we cannot pursue this. What you do is to carry this feeling in your daily activities, to carry on with your responsibilities and still maintain a high spiritual attitude. Spend as much time as you can in growing spiritually in meditation and whatever other searching you feel led to do. Do not let it worry you because you feel you are not gaining as fast as you should. As long as you are making the effort, doing the best you can with what you have to do with, you will be growing according to your path. I understand that sometimes we get anxious about spiritual things, just as we do about other things. The main thing is to establish a balance between the carnal and the spiritual, not to let either one take over as long as you are in the physical and have obligations there. Fulfill those obligations in a spiritual way as much as you can. This will help you to grow spiritually.

Questioner: Is there some way we can muster our light forces to keep President Ford from getting tangled up in the things he is going to face, now that he has been appointed to be our President?

Yaum: You would not believe the great conspiracy that took place. To those who are not aware of what goes on beneath, you could and would not believe. The whole manipulation was to get certain other powers in control. The ultimate plan is to bring your people under complete control, to remove all of your rights. The international bankers are all a part of this. They are going to become more and more bold as they gain more and more power. Another thing that makes it so impossible to overcome these problems is that no one is going to give. Everyone wants to take, but no one is willing to give. Unless you can have give and take, a doing of what is best for everyone, you can never accomplish anything, just like the situation that has come up now over your grain. Your money men are conspiring to sell off great quantities of your grain to other nations, which you do not have to sell without jeopardizing your own people. After the other nations get it, they will want to sell some of it back to you for more. It is a money making deal. That is all this is in the minds of these people.

Questioner: Is Rockefeller aware of the evil he is doing?

Yaum: Not as such, he is a part of a great power structure. He thinks he is doing right. These people think they are the world gods, that they should be worshipped and should tell everybody what to do.

Questioner: Do they realize that they are being manipulated by the evil forces?

Yaum: No, they do not. These people have even been on the other side manipulating back and forth, and they incarnate back into these situations. They do not plan just for themselves they plan ahead for generations in the same structure for their children and their grandchildren. This is all the manipulating of the dark forces. This has been going on for many, many years, even before your Civil War.

Questioner: Are they, themselves, the evil forces?

Yaum: They are part of them. People are so easily taken in by them. You see that oil deal was manipulated by them. They own all the oil in the world.

Questioner: If they studied Jesus' teachings, they would know that they are wrong.

Yaum: They do not care about Jesus' teachings. They go to church on Sunday and go to hell on Monday. They only go to church to be seen. They do not believe anything there. The only thing that means anything to them is power. The control of energy gives them power.

Questioner: Was the gold moved to another place in Europe?

Yaum: Much of it has been. When asked to prove this false they did not show all the gold they had in front, much was behind. It is a simple matter to deceive people about such things, most of the gold that is in your country does not belong to your country. It is merely stored here and is transferred from one to another. A lot has been moved to the Swiss bankers because they feel it is safer there than it is here. The Swiss banks are in the financial center of the world.

Questioner: When you greeted us earlier and said that this would become a fine light center, did you have anything particular in mind along a certain path of service?

Yaum: In any specific service you are going to develop as you overcome your physical and material problems that you have to face here, and are able to settle down and work at the spiritual angle a little more. I think you will find that this place will develop into a gathering place for some of the special sincere seekers, and you will be able to help and guide them.

Questioner: We have felt that the guidance that led us to this and made it possible for us to live here was for that particular purpose and was not just for our cozy little living.

Yaum: As long as you have this attitude and work towards that end, it will develop. Nothing happens by chance, you see. It happens because someone has made it happen. You have made it happen, or someone else has made it happen. There really cannot be anything of importance that happens by chance. This is not to say that someone “up here” is making everything happen. A lot of things you are making happen because of your actions and reactions. It is the Law of action and reaction-cause and effect.

Questioner: It is truly great, Yaum, to have you here.

Yaum: It has given me much pleasure to spend this time with you. I am grateful for having been accepted into your nice house, and I hope that I might join you again soon.

So may the grace, peace and love and joy of all the Great Ones be invoked upon each of you now and as you go forth in your daily endeavors. May you find the path lighter and lighter, and may each hour and each moment bring to each of you a greater love and a greater understanding.

Peace, Peace, go in peace. ☸
