Samuel: Greetings to you, my children, I am Samuel.

I would like to comment about the subject you have been discussing and perhaps share a little of our understanding of the situation.

In the last days of the Antichrist and his reign of power, he shall become very powerful. He shall declare himself to be God and will insist on being worshiped and served as such. In order to be in his favor and to receive his favors, you will be required to do this and follow all of his dictates. Without this you will not be able to have the mark or the number. In the last few days of his reign many who refuse to do this will be persecuted or murdered by his followers. Many of these will be very devout individuals who have been loyal to the Christ and his teachings.

There will be others who will be less devout, yet somewhat devout, who are trying to the best of their ability and yet have refused to recognize or serve the Antichrist. Many of these will be done away with physically. Many will go into hiding. There will be those who will pretend to follow the Antichrist in order to receive their daily bread. There will be a number of categories.

But with the chaining of the dark forces or the Antichrist and his followers, there will be a period of judgment of those who are borderline cases of which there will be many. All of these judgments will be made on a soul level. Those who have been falsely acclaiming the Antichrist will have been discovered by his followers and already have been destroyed, that is, their physical bodies.

So most of this judgment will be made of these souls while they are on the astral level and also of many of the devout. There will actually be some of the chosen ones of the very devout or holy ones, who will actually be resurrected from the dead and they will be the ones who will sit in the judges seats. They will be the ones, with the help of the Christ and his Angels, to establish the next civilization upon Earth.

The earth having gone through a great cleansing period of cataclysms and changes of many kinds, will require a great amount of work and know-how to set up a new civilization. This civilization will definitely be one of justice and peace. Peace will reign supreme for at least 1000 years, and at the end of that time those who are less devout, you might say, and who have a few problems yet, will be allowed to enter this civilization. They will be resurrected from the astral plane and be allowed to enter this civilization. They will be resurrected from the astral plane and be allowed to incarnate. The forces of darkness having been withheld and chained for this period of time, will also soon be loosed. For how can man prove himself lest he be tempted? You all know that your Master Jesus had to survive all of these temptations of the dark forces to prove himself capable of being what he is, the Christ.

But for those will be the temptations and trials, but most of them have proven themselves to be worthy, at least of this chance and they will be given that chance. What they do with it will be up to them; what they make this civilization to be, will be up to them. They can make it a great and pleasant civilization if they will but put forth the effort to do so. I do not know if this will fit in with your interpretation of what is given in your scriptures. But this is the way we see it, so you must be the judge.

Questioner: Will you explain what you mean by the most holy and devout being resurrected from the dead?

Samuel: There will be some of those who will be persecuted and murdered and they will be the ones that will be actually resurrected or raised from the dead. Their bodies will still be intact just as Jesus' body was raised from the dead after being dead for several days. These things will happen within a few days. Many people will not see this happen, only a few, and it will be only the devout ones.

I would like to change the subject for a few moments and mention something that you may or may not be aware of. I rather thought that Oxal would mention this in his talk, but perhaps he didn't through oversight. But a great problem is arising in your atmosphere in the air about you which is an accumulation of acids. Now this is known to your hierarchy or those in power. They are much troubled by it but they do not know what to do about it, so it has been kept very quiet. It may have surfaced slightly here or there and so perhaps some of you may have had an inkling of it.

Questioner: So this is what is causing the acid rainfall in some areas?

Samuel: Yes, and it is causing trees, birds, vegetation to die and if you are not aware of it, I thought it would be worthwhile to mention it. It is more in some parts of the country than in others. It is not too severe in your area as of yet. But in some parts of your country it is affecting the vegetation, the bird life and some of the wildlife and it is becoming a serious situation. As the rain comes through the air it picks up this acid.

It comes from your pollution, not from the fallout. It is due to the various chemical pollutants as they have been allowed to escape into your atmosphere and accumulate. It comes from many different sources. Your automobiles, your airplanes and many other sources contribute to this pollution. So you may be hearing more about it because some of the individuals who have discovered this are beginning to talk about it. They are quite concerned but they do not know what to do about it. They know that it comes from chemical pollution but they do not know what to do to for it.

So perhaps again there may have to be some intervention if this situation becomes too severe. We may have to tell someone what to do about it, although we perhaps will be condemned for that as being of the evil.

Questioner: How is this going to be told?

Samuel: I do not know yet. It will depend. It will be done in such a manner that it will work out. I thought it would be of interest to you in case you had not heard of this and then it would not be too much of a surprise to you when you do hear it.

Now, my friends, I must leave and as I leave I extend to each of you my most sincere love, peace and joy.

May each of you as you go forth discover a new peace. May you find this peace within you, for you may look far and wide but you will only find it within yourself.

Peace, peace, peace. ♣
