

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Copyright © 2012 Clyde Trepanier

October 10, 1976

Zalhem: Greetings to you, my brothers and sisters, I am Zalhem. We are your brothers although we are of another time and another dimension. We are your brothers and we have a great love for you, a much greater love than you could now know.

All of you here, at this time, have been associated with this work for a long time and some of you from the beginning of the development of this instrument. Therefore, I am going to speak somewhat differently than usual. Those of us who are working through this instrument, that is to say, those who are consistent and responsible for this, consist of myself, our brother Samuel, as you call him, and Joseph and also our brother Anthon. We are all members of an order of the Silent Brotherhood assigned to work in behalf of Earth people.

Our brother, Yaum, is of a slightly different Order but due to his close relationship with Anthon, and also with some others of our Order, he has also contributed in this work aside from that of his own assignment. Perhaps the greatest responsibility of this development has fallen upon the shoulders of Anthon. Now, you see, this did not develop by chance nor did it develop quickly. Our plans are always long range plans so the development of this instrument for the benefit of those that we have reached in this way, began many, many years ago. When I stated that Anthon had carried the greatest responsibility, I will have to clarify this. He has been responsible from the date of birth and beyond up to the present, of most of the development of the instrument. He was responsible for bringing him through the hazardous years and trying to guide and protect. This required much on his part, so, we owe to him a debt of gratitude for his devoted efforts in this matter. We all aided in some ways but he was primarily responsible in bringing this to its completion.

We have been honored and humbled to have had the opportunity to serve you in this way. We hope that we have helped many. We would like to think that at least some of Earth people have been aided by our efforts.

We have tried very hard to instill in those who have been close to our work a realization of what lies within them, a realization of what and who they are. We have tried to instill a realization of aoneness, of aoneness with each other and an aoneness with all of creation; the importance of harmony, the importance of love. We have tried to instill a realization of what your great way shower meant when He said unto His followers, "Love ye one another even as I have loved you."

I wonder if the impact of this simple statement has sunk deep in your hearts. I know that it is difficult for you to realize the love that He had for you and for all men, the understanding, the compassion, the tolerance. These are the things, my brothers and sisters, that we have talked about these many years. I know that it often seems that we are repetitious, that we are repeating things over and over. Yet, in the process of learning we find that we have to be told things many times before they really begin to become a part of our consciousness. When I say that we have for you a greater love than you can understand or realize, I am speaking of this same love and understanding that your great Master had for you. He talked much about this to the people and to His followers, His disciples. Much of this has been handed down through your writings. Your people have read these things generation after generation. Yet as you look closely at your civilization, you see so very little of this. Yet this was the primary thing that this Great Being came to demonstrate to people of earth for this age.

This was the great lesson to be learned in the Age that is now coming to a close. So you see, my friends, how very long it takes to bring home a point or a realization.

As you go forth to teach, to help those who are seeking more understanding feed them gently, lovingly, with compassion, with love and with understanding. Feed them wisely, lead them gently. Let your love and your understanding shine forth that it may be a beacon light to them and cause them to want to reach a higher plateau, to reach out and to cry out, "Give us more of your love and your understanding." This is what we are trying to do for you. We hope that our efforts are fruitful as we hope that yours will be fruitful.

As you go forth we bless you, we love you, we support you, we bring you strength when you need it. We try to bring you inspiration when you are receptive.

Our love and our blessings, as well as those of a greater Light and Understanding, we give unto you.

Peace, peace, go in peace. ✝