Joseph: Greetings to you tiny friends. I am Joseph. Children of Earth and I refer to the people of Earth as children, because in the evolution of the Fallen Man in Earth civilization, they are as children. They have reached perhaps what would be compared to your second or third grade learning in the knowledge and wisdom of Universal Law, although many of your scientists feel that they have reached great heights in knowledge. They have not even scratched the surface of true knowledge, nor will they do so until they remove themselves from materialism.

Several civilizations have come and gone upon your planet, and always the downfall has come through greed. Greed always leads to hate and hate leads to conflict. The combination of greed and hate has brought about all of the great wars of your civilization. Without greed and hate these happenings could not have occurred. Again in your civilization this ugly head has arisen and materialism has taken over the minds of Earth people. It is sad to see the children of your civilization being taught the importance of material possessions rather than the importance of the spiritual life. It is natural for the young to desire. Strong desires arise in the minds of the young so it is necessary to direct these desires in the right direction, and to teach them that material wealth will never bring them peace of mind or happiness unless they have a spiritual background. The knowledge and wisdom that comes with spiritual gain is the only thing that will give them the ability to handle these things in such a way that it does not possess them and destroy them.

The times that you are about to face have been brought about by man's greed, by his materialistic thinking, and these are the things that will determine what each area of your planet has to face. You have talked about the places that would be most affected, and those that would be the least affected. I should like to explain a little about how this is controlled. What has taken place is that as man builds he builds about him vibrations which can be positive or negative. Nature reacts according to these vibrations. So where there has been a great concentration upon the materialistic life and less upon the spiritual, there you will have the greatest negative vibrations, and there you will find will come the greatest destruction. The greatest destruction will come to your great cities, for there has been a concentration of materialistic and selfish thinking and the greatest of these areas in your nation is New York and Los Angeles. But all of your great industrial cities where great concentration has been upon materialistic gains with little thought to the welfare of mankind as a whole, there you will find the greatest destruction, the greatest suffering. The degree will depend entirely upon the vibrations of that area. Some of your smaller cities, but still great cities like Chicago and Detroit and many others, will suffer great destruction. If you could see from our viewpoint, or perhaps a better word would be our vantage point, the clouds that hang over them, you could judge almost conclusively the degree of destruction for each one. This area, of course, being a newer area with a smaller concentration of population at this time will not suffer what many areas will suffer. For one thing, being younger it has not had as much time to build such negative vibrations. It is not without a cloud, but the cloud is smaller and less dense. Few areas of great concentrated population will escape some results.

There are many ways in which the innocent and the just will be taken care of. Most of them realize to some degree at least the approaching storm. Many will be directed or guided to areas of safety. Some must remain until the last moment, will be taken suddenly not knowing when or where they will be taken, but most of them will have a deep inner knowing and peace, realizing that they will be provided for. This is not something that someone or anyone should relax in. I mean by this that you should keep your lamps lighted by walking in His path and knowing that by so doing He will provide for you. He shall lessen your suffering. There will be many degrees of suffering in these times depending upon the vibrations of each individual, how well he has accepted his responsibility to his fellow man and to his Creator. That was not necessary to add for when one fulfills his responsibility to his fellow man, he has fulfilled it to his Creator. For in so much as he has done it to the least of these, he has done it unto Him.

This is something that it is well to keep in mind but so often Earth man forgets to do this and thinks first and foremost of himself. So I say to you Earth people if you would walk in His path, if you would receive His mercy, then follow His laws. For each shall receive as he has given. This is the law, and the law will be fulfilled.

Peace, peace, peace. ♣
