Oxal: Greetings in the Light, my friends. I am Oxal. Again I believe you would like to hear our observation of planet Earth.

As you enter your new year the situation in the Middle East appears brighter than it has at any time yet. This is due to the influences that have been brought about by the branch of the Brotherhood in which brother Yaum functions. They have been successful in bringing about influences with certain individuals. Through these influences these individuals are sincerely trying to negotiate a peace.

We hope that it will be successful and that through this negotiation the major conflict, which is almost surely to develop otherwise, will not occur. But at this point in time we cannot be sure of the results. The opposition forces or the forces of darkness are working, very hard to oppose the action that is now taking place. They do not wish to see peace on Earth nor do they wish to see man develop good will toward his fellow man.

As we have said before, these forces have an advantage in that they do not hesitate to control the minds of men. And many Earth leaders, those in prominent positions in governments, in professions and so on, are controlled by these forces. So the struggle goes on and the results at this time are uncertain.

In your year 1978 there will continue to be a struggle between your politicians. Decisions will be difficult to come by, due to pressure groups that are bringing great pressures to bear upon your politicians. Some of them would like to act for the benefit of the people, but those who furnished the wherewithal to put them where they are, are bringing great pressure upon them. It appears that some major changes may take place at the top level of your government the latter of this year.

Your inflation will continue and it appears that the rate of increase will rise. Great advantage has been taken by certain ones of those who produce your food supplies, and this conflict that is now going on will worsen. Part of this is due to the great power circles attempting to gain control of your food productions. Once they completely control this, they will control everything from the field to the consumer.

These same power structures already own and control all of your energy sources. To complete the control they only need to control the production of your foods. They already control the distribution, so you can expect that conflict to become more serious.

More and more demands will be made upon your government by industry for help. Subsidizing industries is becoming a common thing and is growing.

Nature will continue to react in producing great storms and droughts and floods. Some of these are likely to affect greatly your food supplies.

Earthquakes shall continue to rock your planet and many more lives will be lost through these events.

But on the brighter side, the time draws nearer and nearer when Earthman will be delivered from all of these things and will be able to settle down to a peaceful life, where all shall enjoy justice, equality and love.

Now as I leave you, I extend to each of you my love, my peace and my understanding, and that of my people.

I am Oxal. ✿
