Samuel: Greetings to you, my children, I am Samuel.

I have a few remarks I should like to make. You are each seeking to know the Truth that you might have a better life, that your life might become more abundant, more fulfilling, and this should be the desire of everyone. However such is not the case. But to those of you who are seeking a better life, it is well that you realize who and what you are, and what you are seeking to become.

The first realization that one should try to establish is that you are Mind. You are Mind. You are not a physical, chemical being. It is only a vehicle which you use to experience in this dimension. So long as this Mind succumbs to the physical, chemical world, so long as its consciousness is complying with the materialistic world, it will suffer all of the pitfalls of this dimension. You will not be able to control your environment until you come to the realization that you are Mind, pure Mind, and that out of Mind comes all things. Everything is consciousness, first in the Mind and then materializes from there.

You are striving, in reality, to make this Mind become a Master Mind, a powerful Mind, one that sees reality as it really is. One that sees beyond the materialistic view and realizes that in order to become that which you are striving for and which you desire, you must strengthen this Mind by using it to your fullest capability. And you, too, can eventually become a Master Mind and can control your environment. You need then never to be concerned about being a victim of circumstances, or a ward of charity, for you control your own environment and bring to yourself only that which can be used for your good and the good of mankind.

But as you develop these powers, gain also the wisdom to use them and use them wisely. Mind power is no different than any other power that one may gain. Used wisely it can be a boon to mankind. Used unwisely it can become a vehicle of destruction. Therefore, as one grows in strength, it is very necessary that this strength always be used properly. One must always become and remain positive. Stay always on the positive side. Let your Mind always be positive, for when you are positive you are functioning on the constructive side of Nature or Deity or whatever terminology you wish to use. When you are thinking in negative terms you are operating on the destructive side. So one must become an optimist in order to attune yourself with that side of Nature, the productive side and not the destructive one.

All of you have the capability of becoming a Master Mind, or what is known as a Master Mind in your terminologies, and one can go far beyond that and will in due time. But you must start right where you are with determination and hope and positiveness. Never look back. Let the past dead bury its dead and look only to the future, knowing that there are always new horizons, higher mountains to climb, greater achievements to be made. And you, beloved ones, can make these achievements, can climb these mountains and can become that which you seek to become.

So set your goals high, have determination, have knowing. Do not allow these little doubts that creep in, to discourage you. Let the Will grow stronger and stronger so that your achievements can be greater. Your achievements should not be for recognition nor to impress others, but they should be directed to becoming a more powerful ego with wisdom and understanding so that you can contribute more and more to the lifting up of mankind and to the advancement of his evolution. I have said enough.

I leave you, beloved, by extending to each of you my love and my blessings. My joy and my peace I leave with you.

I ask that the blessings of the Great Ones be bestowed upon you now.

Go in peace, beloved ones, peace, peace, peace. ☸
